ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am extremely thankful to my learned teacher and supervisor, Dr. Aloka Parasher-Sen, Professor, Department of History, School of Social Sciences, University of Hyderabad. Her encouragement led me to undertake this research. It is impossible to appear this work without her invaluable, constant, energetic and studious supervision. She was ever ready to go through the manuscripts of this work, despite her official engagements, and make scholarly suggestions. Her constant enforcement towards me made it possible for me to complete this work.

I am thankful to all the faculty members of the Department of History. My special thanks are to Prof. K. S. S. Seshan, former Head of the Department of History and Prof. Ratan Lal Hangloo, current Head of the Department.

I am very much grateful to Librarians and the staff members of Indira Gandhi Memorial Library, Hyderabad, Archaeological Survey of India, New Delhi, Indira Gandhi Library for Fine Arts, New Delhi, Salar Jung Museum Library, Hyderabad, State Central Library, Afzal Gunj, Hyderabad and CIEFL Library for their co-operation.

My special thanks go to Mrs. Vara Lakshmi, Librarian, State Department of Archaeology and Museums, Hyderabad for her co-operation. Without her help it was difficult for me to get material in time from their Library.

I am thankful to Prof. R. ChampakaLakshmi for her instructions and encouragement during her visit to the University of Hyderabad in 2000. I am also grateful to Dr. Padmanaba, Dr. E. Siva Nagi Reddy and Dr. B. Subrahmanyam for their encouragement and affection.

I cannot thank A. Aruna for her assistance throughout and Sham Sunder for his invaluable help in entering the data on electronic version.

My sincere thanks are to Dr. K. P. Rao, who willingly helped in the preparation of maps on the computer.

I also thank all the staff of computer centre for their co-operation.

I am thankful to all my wingmates specially Varghese and Durga Srinivas, Elizabeth James and V. Rajesh for proof reading my thesis.

It will be failing in my duties if I do not acknowledge to Masum Ali Khan, Vinod Vandari, Krishnan and John Korush for their help in proof reading my thesis in initial stages.
I am indebted to Dr. Rati Khan Panda and Sai who offered their computers to me whenever it was necessary.

It will be committing mistake if I miss to acknowledge Indian Council for Foreign Cultural Relations and Indian Government for providing scholarship for my study. I am also thankful to the staff members of ICCR.

I am grateful to all my friends who have always encouraged and inspired me during my research work.

It will be failing in my duties if I miss to thank Prof. U Kyaw Win, Head of the Department of History, Yangon University, Dr. Than Tun who looked after me and encouraged and enforced me to come India for my study. I thank the Embassy of Myanmar, New Delhi, for approving your progress reports. I am also thankful to Ministers for Education and other members of SLORC of Myanmar, for permitting to visit India to pursue my research work.

I would like to thank my family members who are lacking my love and affection during my study in India.
