Acknowledgements

I would like to thank all people who have helped and inspired me during my doctoral study.

I want to thank my advisor, Dr. Nirupam Roy Choudhury for his guidance during my research and study at ICGEB. His perpetual energy and enthusiasm in research had motivated all his advisees, including me. His simplicity, perfection, encouragement and patience make him the best guide to work with. In addition, he was always accessible and willing to help his students with their research. As a result, research life became smooth and rewarding to me.

I was delighted to interact with Dr. Sunil K Mukherjee as my co-advisor. His insights into the field of replication and RNAi are second to none. Besides, he sets an example of a world-class researcher for his rigor and passion in research. His technical advices and suggestions were of great help in solving the problem. I thank him for imparting me the capacity to trouble shoot problems with ease.

I want to express my gratitude to Padma Shri Sudhir K Sopory, Group Leader, PMB for upholding the conducive, open and pleasant working environment in the lab. His punctuality, sincerity and dedication towards profession have always been inspirational to each of us in PMB.

I express my gratitude to Prof. Virander S Chauhan, Director, ICGEB for being the champion of students. The '9.30pm rule' and '4 year PhD programme' initiated under his guidance makes ICGEB the best place in India. He is the driving force for the timely submission of this thesis.

I owe my regards to Dr. Shahid Jameel for introducing me to ICGEB as a trainee and his guidance in choosing the lab. Thanks are due to Dr. Krishnamurthy Natarajan for training me in immunology during my lab rotation.
I am thankful to the faculty of PMB for their support, encouragement and concern for students. I am grateful to Dr. Neeti, Dr. M.K. Reddy, Dr. Narendra Tuteja, Dr. Sneh Lata, Dr. Suresh Nair, Dr. Raj Bhatnagar and Dr. Pawan Malhotra for their constant guidance and prompt support.

I am grateful to Ms. H S Narayanan and other administrative staff for the prompt paper work. Mr. Rawat and Mr. Murali need special mention for their co-operation in the procurement of chemicals. I thank Dr. Chandra Mouli and other members of animal house for their assistance in handling mice. I also thank Chandan, Dinesh, Surender, Kartik, Hira Singh, Ramesh for their timely help in arranging the chemicals, apparatus and green-house facilities.

The financial support provided by CSIR, Govt. of India in the form of JRF and SRF is duly acknowledged.

It is a pleasing moment to acknowledge my colleagues Afsar, Geetika, Jamil, Kosalai, Pranjal, Vikash and Vipin for being ready to help at any kind of request. Lot many thanks to Prerna for her guidance during infiltration experiments. I would also thank my seniors Kannan, Suman Ranjan, Basu, Dharmendra, Nurul, Usha, Ajay, Ravi Mishra, Nuzhat, Pratibha, Raza, Bhumesh, Dhiraj, Meenu for their guidance during the my Ph.D. I also acknowledge Archana, Bhuban, Deepti, Jyoti, Lokesh, Meetu, Pankaj, Pooja, Preeti, Ram, Rashmi, Ravi, Sameena, Shubhra, Sonam, Vandita and Thanh for their pleasant company.

I take this opportunity to thank my friends of ICGEB-2004 batch who made me feel at home - Sumona, Subhasis, Meha, Namita, Deepti, Alam, Prashant, Aseem, Shashak, Viru, Grace, Hafiz and Kris. Many a regards to Prashant, Alam and Kris for their concern; Meha for being a good counsellor during all my mischief, Deepti for being tough; Subhasis for being silent; Sumona for being my best company in the lab as well, Viru for his special attention and Shashank for being approachable for any help. I thank Yukti for her efforts to keep us united.

Special mention is due to Diwa and Tarun for being best room-mates I ever had and bearing the ‘hot mahol’ created by me.

I owe a lot to The Almighty for blessing me with a loving family. I am indebted to my grandparents, parents, Vasavi, Venkat and Sampath for being supportive. I thank Venkat for taking all my responsibilities and filling the void of an elder son at my home.
