Thanks are also due to the librarian and staff of various libraries at St. Albert’s College, Ernakulam, MG University, Kerala University, Department of Commerce and Management Studies, Calicut University, Central Library, and Centre for Development Studies Thiruvananthapuram for making the library resources available to me. I also express my gratitude to KITTS, Thiruvananthapuram, Department of Tourism, Govt. of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram for making available to me the necessary materials relevant to the study.

I also express my sincere and deep sense of gratitude to the Managing Committees and Staff of various Devaswom Boards in Kerala namely TDB, CDB, GDB and MDB for providing relevant data and furnishing information required by me for the study. I am also thankful to staff of the various temples of the study for their good approach and help.

I express my gratitude to the pilgrims of the temples under study who have co-operated with me in the study by spending their valuable hours while collecting data and other stages of study.

I also record my thanks to Mr Jabir K (Statistician) and Sunanda C (Assistant Professor, Agricultural university, Wayanadu), for help in the data compilations and analysis by using software.

I am also indebted to my husband Mr. E Manoharan, and my daughters E Varsha and Vinsha E who have suffered a lot due to my absence as I have to go different places to collect data. I am thankful to my husband’s sister Rohini E who supported my family in the absence of me for everything. I am also thankful to my husband’s friends who have accompanied me with families for data collection even at Pamba especially Mr Mohanan and his wife Rama and Jobraj and his wife Surekha and their son Sumanraj and daughter Merin. My friends who have doing research in various subjects at the time of FIP are encouraged me all the time to complete the work. On this occasion, I remember my teachers who were the leading light of my life. I am also indebted to my mother paternal (Laskmi.N) and maternal (Narayani E), father (Viswanathan.K), sister (Beena.K) and brothers (Bijumon.K, Binumon.K and Bipin.K) who always encouraged me in all aspects of my career.
advancement. I also record my indebtedness to my sisters-in-law, Aneesha.P.K, and Haritha.C.P, who have supported me and encouraged me.

I also wish to represent my thanks to inspiring friends at Kannur University Central Library namely Ranjini (Sankrit), Susmita Ram (History), Mariyama (Hindi) and Bindu (Economics).

I am also indebted to Bina Photostat, Calicut for their support to alignment, printing and binding of my doctoral thesis.

I feel that, I have completed this work only by the grace of God to whom I am indebted to for everything in my life.
