Acknowledgements

I express my deep gratitude to my guide Dr. A. R. Ghosh, Reader and former Head of the Department of Geography, Calcutta University, under whose constant supervision and inspiring guidance this thesis was written. To him I owe many of the central ideas, which form the basis of this writing.

I gratefully acknowledge the advice, assistance, information and encouragement received from many persons. I wish to convey my most sincere thanks to some among them:

Mr Abhijit Biswas, Lake Gardens, Calcutta, for helping with digitisation of maps
Dr Ajay Bhattacharyya, Västerås, Sweden for procurement of instruments and books
Mr Amiya K Bhattacharyya, Zurich, Switzerland for procurement of books
Mr Bikash Ranjan Bhuniyan, Principal Agricultural Officer, Suri for district statistics
Mr Asish Chakravarty, Chief of News Bureau, Dept of Information, Govt. of West Bengal for assistance in map procurement
Dr Gunin Chakraborty, Soil Scientist, Agronomy - Soil Science Laboratory, Vishwa-Bharati, Sriniketan for soil data
Prof. T Chakraborty, Prof of Agronomy & Prof-in-Charge Central Library, Vishwa-Bharati, Sriniketan for general information and articles on district features.
Dr Subhendu Choudhury, Professor, Dept of Plant Pathology and Director of Research, Vidhan Chandra Krishi Vishwa Vidyalaya, West Bengal, for guidance to sources of information and some valuable suggestions
Mr Md. Ibrahim, Dept of Agriculture, Suri for district statistics
Mr Karl-Heinz Kuhl, KK-Software, Weiden, Germany for vectorization software
Mr Subir Mitra, Indian Statistical Institute, Calcutta for statistical analysis
Mr Sandipan Mukherji, Divisional Forest Officer, West Bengal for information on forests
Mr Lokendra Nath Roychoudhury, Calcutta for computerisation support
Dr Raj Kumar Roy Chowdhury, Indian Statistical Institute, Calcutta for advice on statistical analysis
Mr Santanu Sanyal, Logistics Editor, The Hindu Business Line, Calcutta for assistance in map procurement
Dr. Nityananda Trivedi, Director of Agriculture and ex-officio Secretary, Dept of Agriculture, Govt. of West Bengal for permitting data collection

I also thank Dr Jharna Mukherji, Mrs Nandini Som and all my other colleagues of the Department of Geography, and Mrs Anuradha Roy, Librarian, Gokhale Memorial Girls' College, Calcutta for their help and support.

I wish to deeply thank all members of my family for their patience and help. I owe more than I can adequately express to my husband, Mr L N Roychoudhury for his constant encouragement.
