ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my sincere gratitude to my Supervisor Prof. R. Borgohain, Head of Department, Department of Political Science, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong for her scholarly insights and invaluable guidance without which this work would not be complete.

I would like to thank all the faculty members in the department of Political Science, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong for their support and encouragement during my research work.

I am grateful to the University Grant Commission, New Delhi for extending financial assistance during the course of this study and Indian Council of Social Science Research for sponsoring my library visit to New Delhi.

I am also thankful to the staffs and librarians of North-Eastern Hill University Central Library (Shillong), Indian Council of Social Science Research-NERC Library, (Shillong), North-Eastern Council Library (Shillong), Otto Hopfenmuller Library (Shillong), Indian Council of Social Science Research-NASSDOC Library (New Delhi), Jawaharlal Nehru University Library (New Delhi), Nehru Memorial Library (New Delhi), Indian Institute of Public Administration Library (New Delhi), Omeo Kumar Das Institute Library (Guwahati), Manipur University Library (Imphal) for their co-operation during visits to their library.

Also, a big thank you to all my friends for the continuous prayer, support and help they have rendered whenever needed.

I am extremely grateful to all my family members for their prayers, love, support and encouragement throughout my study.

This investigation would not have been successfully completed without the co-operation of poor rural men and women of Churachandpur district of Manipur as well as officials from District Rural Development Agency, Line Departments and State Bank of India in Churachandpur district. I thank them for taking time from their busy schedules to respond to my query and allowed themselves to be questioned.
