ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present study has been made possible with much needed cooperation, assistance and motivation of individuals and institution to which I wish to express my gratitude.

At the very outset I would firstly like to thank God for blessing upon me, enabling me to carry on the research work even in times of difficulties.

With honour and gratitude, I am very much grateful to my guide, Dr. (Mrs.) Ibadani Syiem for her valuable constant support and availability all through the process of the study.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Professor C. Nongbri, Head of Department of Education, Teachers of the Department of Education and the non-teaching staff for their valuable assistance in making the study a success. I would also like to thank my friends for their constant support and help in making the study a success.

I am also very thankful to the Principals, Teachers and Students of different schools of Tura Town for their full cooperation extended to me in conducting the study.

I would also like to express my gratitude to the librarians of North-Eastern Hill University, Shillong for their help in providing me with necessary resources.

Finally, my sincere thanks to my family members and all those who help me directly or indirectly for their support and inconveniences caused through the various stages of this study.
