ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Any research such as this one owes its existence to countless individuals and institutions that have supported its coming into being. This project has taken a long and often painful path to its final completion but has been fostered at each stage by teachers, guide and the Head of Department of Education, NEHU, Prof. C. Nongbri who have managed through their efforts to make it something more than I could have produced on my own.

I would like to acknowledge and thank all those who have been supporting and guiding me in making this Dissertation a successful one.

My appreciation goes to my supervisor, Asst. Prof. Mrs. Rihunlang Rymbai who is my Supervisor and Guide, her valuable time and talent has made me aware of many thing needed to be done for this research.

My gratitude goes to the Principals and Teachers of different school under West Khasi Hills District for which without their co-operation and generosity, I wouldn’t have been able to carry out the task effectively.

Last but not the least I would like to pay my compliment to my family members and colleagues who have been supportive and patient with me.
