Acknowledgements

First and foremost, no words can adequately express the respect and gratitude I feel towards my supervisor, Professor H.S. Chopra. I am immensely indebted to him for his open-hearted acceptance to allow me to work under him. His unlimited support, his boundless patience, his relentless dedication towards his work, his untiring search for perfection even at this juncture of his life, his never-say-die attitude has always inspired me and goaded me to strive for better. He has always been approachable and friendly. His dedication towards his work has significantly influenced my professional philosophy. So, I think, he aptly fits into the phrase of 'A friend, philosopher and guide' for me.

I would like to thank Mr. Arthur Monteiro for extending his kind help by sparing his precious time in editing this work.

At a personal level, first and foremost I wish to thank Maa, Mrs. Krishan Prasad, who has always stood by me like a pillar of strength. It's really amazing that a lady of her age and frail physical condition had happily let go off me during the entire tenure of my work so that I could concentrate fully in completing this thesis. Her silent blessings and unlimited patience has made this work possible. Personally, I believe that all my words of gratitude will fall short of the respect and love she deserves. I would also like to thank my sisters, Amita and Minni and brother-in-laws, Mrigendra and Subhakar. It is their unflinching love and blessings that has supported me throughout this rigorous period. I would also like to thank Babu, Mantu, Babai and Kutan, who has always been there for me, whether or not I needed their support.

I have also been fortunate in having so many friends like Ajay, Juned, Niraj, Ram Singh Thakur, who have stood by me through my venture.

I am also indebted to all those who have contributed in some way or other, in shaping up of this work. I would also like to thank Chandan, Manbar and Kailash of Sanjay Photostat and Electrostat, who has relentlessly worked from behind the scene. Patiently, bearing up with my demands for repetitive typing and editing which at times caused great inconvenience to them.

Last but not the least, my special gratitude and pranam to ‘Him’, the ultimate father of us lesser beings, who has his own special plans for each one of us, who imbibes each one of us, mere mortals, with strength to tide over the apparently insurmountable obstacles.
