5.2.1.12: A brand is a sign system 265
5.2.1.13: Signs can be many 265-266
5.2.1.14: The sum total of all images is the sign/symbol 266-267
5.2.1.15: Sign systems need two hands to clap 267
5.2.1.16: Visual literacy – key trait of a successful corporation 267
5.2.1.17: Media is about meaning construction 267-268
5.2.1.18: Mass dissemination of ideas is a necessity 268
5.2.1.19: Propaganda is however different from advertising 268-269
5.2.1.20: The world of public conversation is expansive 269
5.2.1.21: Media develops issues and provides feedback 269-270
5.2.1.22: Organizational communicators need to tailor their messages and intensity 270-271

5.2.2 From the Field Survey 271-279
5.2.2.1 Quantitative Research 271-276
5.2.2.2: Qualitative Research 276-279

5.3. A New Paradigm 280-284

BIBLIOGRAPHY 285-298

APPENDIX 299-307

APPENDIX 1: Qualitative Research: Interview Guide For Symbol Creators 299-302
APPENDIX 2: Survey Instrument 303-307

INDEX OF TABLES & FIGURES

Tables
Table 1.1: Institutional Development of the Media 91
Table 3.1: Phases of Research
Table 4.1: Gender Profile
Table 4.2: Age Distribution
Table 4.3: Gender and Age Distribution
Table 4.4: Occupational Profile
Table 4.5: What are symbols
Table 4.6: Understanding – uniform or variance
Table 4.7: Factors given Rank 1 and the respondent proportions
Table 4.8: Factors given Rank 2 and the respondent proportions
Table 4.9: Factors given Rank 3 and the respondent proportions
Table 4.10: Recall of components that constitute symbol/s in isolation – offline
Table 4.11: Recall of components that constitute symbol/s in isolation – online
Table 4.12: Communicates about symbols of a company / entity / brand (offline)
Table 4.13: Degree of communication/connect (recall)
Table 4.14: Source of awareness
Table 4.15: Chosen company – aspects constituting symbols/symbolism (offline)
Table 4.16: Chosen company – aspects constituting symbols/symbolism (online)
Table 4.17: Reliance
Table 4.18: Infosys
Table 4.19: Vodafone
Table 4.20: SBI
Table 4.21: “Mahatma Gandhi”, One symbol many meanings and feelings
Table 4.22: Media, which helps in opinion making
Table 4.23: Sources for information on the Internet
Figures

Figure 1.1: Relationship between Corporate Identity and Corporate Image 44
Figure 1.2: Centrality of Meaning in the Symbolization Process 71
Figure 1.3: An Inkblot Image - Rorschach Test 77
Figure 5.1: Audiences surrounding a Corporation 252
Figure 5.2: Relation between the three elements in the signifying process 266
Figure 5.3: Marketing a corporation and creating a positive public opinion and reputation – a symbols based and integrated framework 281