ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Since long time it has become essential to earn a degree for expression of one’s skills, and therefore I felt that the last and ultimate degree Ph.D in the field of education should be achieved so that it can be useful in future. I am thankful to all those who have guided and encouraged me in fulfilling this expectation.

➢ Firstly, I am thankful to the Director, Rai University, Saroda for enrolling me into the university.

➢ I am also thankful to Shri Prabodhkant D. Pandya, the Managing Trustee, New Meghdoot Vidya Vihar for encouraging me in my research work.

➢ I express my gratitude towards my honorable guide Mrs. Dr. Harshaben R. Patel who has inspired me continuously in my research work.

➢ I also express my gratitude towards my husband, parents and family member without whose cooperation this herculean task could not be completed.

➢ I am also thankful to Mrs. Dr. Bhartiben Thakar and Shri Pathikbhai who had provided to me the guidance about data analysis and report writing.

➢ I am thankful to Shri Jayantbhai Desai for translating this thesis, and to Shri Maulikbhai Trivedi for typing work of the research work.

➢ I also thank students of my school as well as other schools who are the foundation stone of this research.

➢ I acknowledge and express my gratitude towards honorable writers of reference books, principals of the sample schools and all those known and unknown learners.
