CONTENTS

Preface
Abbreviations

Introduction 1

I. Towards a Historiographic Understanding 27

II. State Policy and Congress Resolutions 41

III. Famine Relief: Mentality and Practice in Government Policy 56

IV. Colonial Governance and the Question of Public and Private Relief 73

V. The Creation of a Public Arena: Government Relief Measures 94

VI. Relief in a Princely State: A "case study" of Baroda, 1860-1905 115

VII. Famine Relief, Welfare and Charity during the Early Years of the Twentieth Century, 1900-1920 136

VIII. Organized Nationalist Politics and the Origins of Politicised Relief 188

IX. The Politicization and Expansion of Relief Activities in the Nineteen Twenties 208

X. Anticipating Propaganda: Rethinking Government Strategy 255

XI. High Points of Conflict over Relief Activities: The Bihar and Quetta Earthquakes 267

XII. The Politics of Relief: Congress's Successes and Failures 302

XIII. Epilogue: Our Theme in the Forties 342

Bibliography 357