ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am highly indebted to my supervisor Dr. J.S. Gandhi for providing valuable guidance and suggestions throughout the course of this study. I also wish to express my profound sense of gratitude to my Professors Yogendra Singh and T.K. Oommen for their helping attitude and encouragement from time to time.

I am thankful to all my respondents whose willingness, responsiveness and cooperation made this work possible. Among them, I owe a special debt of gratitude to: Dr. Chandralekha, Dr. Shakuntala Dube and Dr. Majaz Moonis (All-India Institute of Medical Sciences), Dr. Shakuntala Balika and Sharda Jain (Smt. Sucheta Kripalani Hospital), Dr. V. Mehra and C.P. Bhasin (Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia Hospital), Dr. Sudha Nigam, Dr. Sachdeva and Dr. H.S. Rehana (Safdarjang Hospital) and Dr. Pushpa Saxena and Dr. S. Akhtar (Lok Nayak Jai Prakash Narain Hospital).

I am grateful to the Medical Superintendents of the hospitals, the Academic Registrar of All India Institute of Medical Sciences, and the Principal of Lady Hardinge Medical College, New Delhi who permitted me to carry out this research work in their respective hospitals.

I wish to express my sincere regards to Professor Moonis Raza (Vice Chancellor, University of Delhi) for his constant support and timely advice in the completion of the present work.
Mere words cannot be expressive enough for my gratitude towards my family members, especially my brother Mr. S.M. Mustafa Abidi, whose continued cooperation provided me a congenial mental frame to complete this work.

A special note of thanks is due to my friends for the understanding they shared of the constraints and compulsions of my work, and the help they rendered in times of crisis.

I gratefully acknowledge the doctoral fellowship grant made available to me by Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi, without which this study would not have been possible.

I must thank Mr. Murli Dhar, CSRD/SSS, Jawaharlal Nehru University and Mr. B.S. Nagi, Council for Social Development, New Delhi for their suggestions and statistical computations.

Last but not the least, I thank Mr. Gajanan Hegde for his flawless typing of the manuscript.
