ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The pursuit of sustained academic interest on a particular topic of research requires both the inspiration of a teacher, guide and supervisor on the one hand and the commitment on the part of a student on the other. I am indeed fortunate to have Prof. K. Oommen as my teacher, guide and supervisor. Without his constant academic guidance and encouragement it would not have been possible for me to finish the work in time. Despite his busy administrative engagements and preoccupation with academic works he readily and ungrudgingly made himself available for discussing my research work at length. For all this I am indebted to him.

I also express my gratitude towards Prof. Yogender Singh, Prof. R.K. Jain, Prof. K.L. Sharma, Centre for the Study of Social Systems, J.N.U., New Delhi and Prof. P.N. Mukherji, I.S.I., New Delhi for the help they rendered to me at various stages of my research work. I acknowledge with gratitude the valuable suggestions of Prof. S.L. Sharma and Prof. P.N. Pimpley, Deptt. of Sociology, Panjab University, Chandigarh.

I am thankful to the University Grant Commission for having provided research grants to undertake fieldwork. I am also thankful to my senior colleagues Dr. B.K. Nagla, Dr. K.S. Sangwan and Dr. B.G. Baboo, Deptt. of Sociology, and Dr. Surender, Dr Bedi.
and Dr. Sarap, Deptt. of Economics, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak who encouraged me in their own ways to complete the work at the earliest. I express my gratitude towards the staff members of J.N.U. Library, staff members of Dumka and Patna Record Room, Settlement Office, Dumka; Block Development Office, Jama and Shikaripara Blocks, who besides extending help to me in collection of data extended hospitality that made my stay comfortable during the fieldwork. I am also indebted to my respondents whose hospitality I shall always treasure in my memory without whose help and sincere cooperation it would not have been possible to get deeper insight into the problems at hand. They deserve special praise because despite my not being tribal they reposed full confidence in me and allayed my apprehensions of being treated as 'diku.'

I owe my gratitude to Prof Tulsi Ram and Dr C.M. Sharma of English department, M.D.U, Rohtak who helped in removing stylistic and transcriptive errors. I am also thankful to Prof R.D. Dikshit for his valuable suggestions. For computerised data processing and statistical assistance I owe my debts to Dr Mukesh Dhunna, Mr Anil Mittal, Mr V.S. Batra, Mr Satpal, Mr Samir Dalal and Mr Babu Lal. Finally, I have a special word of admiration for the cooperation and warm support that my wife Pinky and daughter Dolly rendered to me in course of completing the work. I also owe my debts to my parents who always supported me materially and encouraged me in their own ways to wind up the work.

JITENDRA PRAJNA