ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

May I kneel before the Lord Almighty for His umpteen showers of blessing. The grace bestowed by Him filled me with fervour to pursue the project tirelessly.

My sincere gratitude to my esteemed guide Dr. V. Nithyanantha Bhat, M. G. University Research Centre, Mar Athanasius College, Kothamangalam for his valuable guidance, patient tolerance and dedicated involvement. His reassurances have gone a long way in instilling confidence, and his thoughtful suggestions have helped a lot in improving the quality of the thesis.

My heart abounds with gratitude to Rev. Sr. Reethamma, Principal, St. Xavier’s College for Women, Aluva and to Rev. Sr. Percy, Former Principal, for their relentless support and motivation. I also extend my thanks to Ms. Lincy Joseph, Head of the Department of English and all my colleagues in the department for their valuable contributions.

I place on record my sincere thanks and obligation to Dr. Leena George, Principal, Mar Athanasius College, Kothamangalam, Dr. Winny Varghese, Secretary and Prof. Paul Mathew, Head of the Department of English and the faculty of Mar Athanasius College for providing me all the necessary support.

I am greatly indebted to my professor, Dr. Latha Nair, St. Teresa’s College, Ernakulam, who helped me to decide on my research area and found time to correct and modify the thesis.

I would like to express my gratitude to my loving parents, Mr. M.S Nelson and Mrs. Alphonsa Nelson who dreamt for me this momentous occasion. I am grateful to them for their pride in and prayers for me and for their interest and appreciation in my research work. I also place my thanks to my sister, Ms. Renjini Jaison and her family for the encouragement rendered throughout.

I remember with thanks the immense emotional strength, selfless support and consoling pats received from my husband, Mr. Binu Paul M.P. He took to his soul my own pangs and pains and showed keen interest in the successful completion of the thesis which has been very touching and encouraging. Without him the dream of completion of the thesis would never have fulfilled.

The genuine warmth and cooperation of my children, Abram Paul, Arthur Nelson and my little one yet to be born, should be noted for they helped me sustain through this hectic academic task. Their sprightliness and alacrity relieved me at times of tensions of the work.

I have been benefitted a great deal by the support and prayers of my parents-in-law, Mr. M. L. Paul and Mrs. Annie Paul; and the whole kindred of my extended family. Their caring disposition has always been cheering. My heartfelt thanks to all.

Special thanks to my dear friends, Dr. Dhanya Ravindran and Ms. Sreeja V for their constant support all through my academic enquiry. Their positive words have always instilled in me confidence and their friendship has bestowed me with the impulse to improve and excel.

I dedicate the fruit of my pains to you all with a heart full of unfathomable gratitude and abysmal obligation.
