"Does the Eagle Know What is in the Pit?
Or wilt Thou Go Ask the Mole?
Can Wisdom be put in a Silver Rod?
Or Love in a Golden Bowl?"

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A Thesis that goes through a long gestation period of five years (from July 1992 to July 1997) receives the aid and advice of so many midwives. In the present case, I am conscious of a debt owed to so many sources of advice, criticism, and support that to attempt a comprehensive list would be to double the length and latitude of the resulting project.

Among the individuals who deserve specific words of appreciation in helping me to bring this project to term, my deepest debt of gratitude goes to my esteemed teacher and supervisor, Prof. Dr. Christopher S. Raj, Professor in American Studies and Chairperson of the Centre for American and West European Studies, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, for his incisive analysis, erudite suggestions, constructive criticisms, unflagging interests and perennial support during the entire study, without which this arduous research work would have simply remained a desideratum. However, the responsibility for facts stated, opinions expressed, or conclusions reached is entirely that of mine, and not of my Guide, who in spite of his very tight schedules, maganeously checked my chapters, though I was working at a snail's pace in fits and starts. My seven years old association with him has been very rich and rewarding for me and has made me wiser in many respects.

This project would not have seen the light of the day had my 'LORD JAGANNATH', the Almighty, (the handless, whose hand of support I constantly needed during the roller-coaster ride of the writing process) not supported me to the hilt opening the floodgates of his unbounded love and blessings all through the preparation and presentation of this thesis. I have been also greatly benefitted by the heavenly blessings and inspirations of Mahatma Gandhiji.

I am also equally grateful and beholden to my ever-loving parents, who have always given me the most and asked the least from me, whose unwavering inspiration and unfailing emotional supports have never sagged even when the chips were down, sharing all the ups and downs of hope and despondency that have accompanied the long haul from planning to completion of this work. I owe a deep sense of love and gratitude to my elder sister, younger sister (Tiki), younger brother (Jaga) and Narahari Nana, my ever-loving and friendly brother-in-law for all they have done to me, and continue to do for me.

I also remain personally beholden to my youngsters, friends, teachers and well-wishers such as Sukant, Sada, Ramanath, PC, Tinu, Joga Bhai, Naresh Gupta, Lakhi, Pradipta, Purna, Hruta, Manoj, Gunanidhi, Bharat, Amar, Jajati Bhai, Biswajit Bhai, Avin Bhai, Ashoka Bhai, Alok Bhai, Bikram Bhai, Arati, Mariya, Manimeklai, Mallilata, Uma, Farah, Mahima, Late Mana, Narana Nana, Baidya Nana and Dai, Nanaba, Apa, Nana, Deva, Mataji Dai, Nuama, Late Aja and Aima, Rajani Mausi, Pakala Mausi and Mausa, Alekha Dada, Patan Dai, Hindi Sir, Sambhu Sir, Pandit Sir, Aviram Sir, Niranjan Sir, Harmohan Sir, Hari Mausa, Surendra Nath Dwibedy Sir, Gandhi Sir and Sushama Ma’m, Prof. Kousar Azam, Prof. A.K Ray, Prof. B.K. Shrivastava, Prof. R.P. Kaushik, Dr. Vijayalakshmi, Dr. Saleem Kidwai, Dr. K.K. Panda, Prof Y.K. Alagh, Prof. Kuldeep Mathur, Mr. Arun Samantroy (IAS), Mr. Bibhuti Dash (OFS), Mr. Biswambar Rana (OFS), Sahu Babu, and countless others for their chipping in of supports, inspirations and incessant pats on my back, which certainly have been like shots in my arm making the adrenalin flowing and releasing the ‘feel-good’ hormones all through the days in the preparation of this thesis.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not acknowledge with heartiest thanks and gratefulness to the American Studies Research Centre (ASRC), Hyderabad, for granting me a ‘study grant’ for visiting and consulting their resourceful and hospitable library for three weeks in March, 1997. I am also equally, grateful to the Indian Council of Social Sciences Research (ICCSR), New Delhi, for awarding me the “Partial Assistance Ph.D. Scholarship” in 1997 for facilitating my Ph.D. work.

I am also recording my thanks and gratitude to the smart helps rendered by the staff of the American Centre Library (New Delhi), United States Information Service (USIS), New Delhi, United States Educational Foundation of India (USEFI), New Delhi, Jawaharlal Nehru University Library, Teen Murti Library, ASRC Library (Hyderabad), Institute for Defence Studies and Analyses Library, Sapru House Library, Parliament House Library and ICSSR Library for facilitating the completion of this thesis.

Last but never the least, I am proferring my heartfelt sincere thanks and gratitude to Mrs Kameshwari ans Kusum for undertaking the daunting task of deciphering and trying out the manuscript meticulously adjusting their time to my needs, and giving eminently presentable trye-scripts, as without their professional aid, the physical preparation of this manuscript could not have been completed.

Thus, dollops of hardwork and luck, a dash of parental and other supports blended under the guidance of wise and learned Professor made the perfect recipe for the successful completion of this project.
