Acknowledgments

I am indebted to Dr. S. D. Joshi, Professor and Head of the Department of Sanskrit and Prakrit languages, University of Poona, my revered guru and guide for helping me in writing the thesis from the very beginning till the end. It is but his guidance and continuous encouragement that could give the work its present shape.

I am grateful to Prof. Dr. R. N. Dandekar, Ex-Director, Centre of Advanced Study in Sanskrit (CASS), University of Poona, for giving me the opportunity to work with Prof. Joshi.

My sincere thanks are due to the staff of the CASS library and the library of the Deccan College.
