Acknowledgement

This thesis would not have been possible without the precious help of few individuals and Institutions. I owe my deepest gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Buddhadeb Chaudhuri and my joint supervisor Dr. Sumita Chaudhuri for their endless effort for guiding me in every aspect of my research work and encouraging me during my study. My research would not have been materialized without their valuable guidance and advice.

I am thankful to the University of Calcutta and the Head of the Department (Anthropology) for providing whatever assistance needed for my research work. I am highly thankful to the villagers of Ramchandrapur and Srimantapur for voluntarily participating and allowing me to carry out my field work in those areas. Last but not the least; I would like to mention the name of Mr. Bapi Biswas without whose relentless help this thesis would not have been completed.

I am also thankful to my mother, Mrs. Sunanda Chowdhury for her words and suggestions which constantly boosted me during my work.
