CHAPTER III

AIMS & OBJECTIVES
The present investigation aims to obtain information for the first time on the skin extract of the Indian toad (Bufo melanostictus, Schneider) in the context of antineoplastic activity. The aims and objective of the present study are-

(a) to established the anticancer activity of the crude toad skin extract (TSE)

(b) isolation/purification & characterization of the antineoplastic compound

(c) to established the anticancer activities of pure compound