Dedicated to my mother and Ankita
I would like to take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude to all those persons who supported me in completion of my thesis.

I would be always grateful to my mother Mrs. Surupa Mukherjee and my father Mr. Tapas Kumar Mukherjee for their patience and support in this long journey of my scientific research that help me to surpass all odds. Throughout my life I will always be deeply in debt to my mother because without her nothing would have been possible.

It’s worth mentioning support and co-operation and mental support that I received from my mother in law, Mrs Krishna Mandal, father in law, Mr Asok Kumar Mandal and my sister in law Anindita Mandal without which completion of my thesis would have been much more difficult.

I would like to express my deepest regard to my supervisor, Dr. Syamal Roy, who from my very first day in the lab has encouraged me to exchange and implement my scientific ideas. His open minded attitude, patience and always managing time to hear out any scientific idea are probably the best things that any student can learn in this field of research. I will be always indebted to him for his absolute support, affection and care.

My customary vote of thanks goes to the Director of IICB, Dr. Siddhartha Roy for giving me this wonderful opportunity to work in this prestigious Institute. I also express my gratitude to CSIR which has provided the scholarship for performing my research work.

I would also take this opportunity to express my regards to Dr. Hemanta K Majumdar, Dr. Tripti De, Dr. Uday Bandyopadhyay, Dr. Rabindranath Mukhopadhyay, Dr. Subrata Majumder, Dr. Sushanta Roychowdhury, Dr. Soma Banerjee and Dr. Mitali Chatterjee for their kind gifts of chemicals and suggestions which were extremely important for my research work. I am particularly thankful to Dr. N.P. Bhattacharya and Dr. Dipsikha Chakroborty for their help and support.

It would remain incomplete if I do not mention the teachers from my University days, particularly Dr. Sumita Jha, Dr. Anita Mukherjee, Dr. Dhrubojoti Chattopadhyay and Dr. Kaustav Panda who have always stretched their helping hand and support whenever I needed them.

In the personal front I would like to express my deepest love and regards to my wife Ankita Mandal Mukherjee. I would always be grateful for her constant support and love during the most difficult days of my career. She has somehow always managed to tolerate me and my constant irritable and depressed mood. These past several years have not been an easy, both academically and personally. I am truly thankful to you for always sticking by my side with your love and support; you have made my life and this thesis much easier.

I would like to express my gratitude to all my seniors like Dr. Bikramjit Raychaudhury, Dr. Visa Mor, Dr. Ranjan Dhar, Dr. Jayati M Basu, Dr. Arun K Haldar, Dr. Subha Sen, Dr. Rajan Guha, Dr. June Ghosh who have all extended their support from the very first day of my Ph. D life. Seniors, like Ms. Moumita Ghosh, Ms. Sanchita Datta and Mr. Koushik Roy have extended their support during my times of crisis. Mr. Shantanabha Das have always provided valuable suggestions whenever I needed them.

These past five years would have been much more difficult with out my friends who have always supported me academically and personally. I am blessed to able to share my working desk with Rupkatha Mukhopadhyaya. I have always made her perform those experiments which I hated and although she hate them too but she have always performed them with a smile on her face for me. Sandip Mukherjee has always been a live wire in our lab. His technical support and analytical knowledge have always helped me immensely. There are no words to thanks Joydeep Paul for just being Joydeep. Joydeep you have not only helped me in the lab, but you have also made the boring journey from Behala to Jadavpur much easier. I must admit without you three my attendance would have been much less. Friends like Somnath Paul, Sayan Chowdhury, Jyotirmoy Mitra and Saurav Saha have always helped me immensely during any difficulties in last five years. In last few days Amrita Pramanik with her calm and pleasant personality made our lab a better place.

The help from Subir Karmakar, Manoj Kumar Singh, Dr. Sovik Sen Gupta, Dr. Bijoylaxmi Banerjee, Dr. Amartya Mishra, and Mr. Somnath Roychowdhury was invaluable. I would like to thank Dr. S Bhattacharyya's group, Mr. Anup Majumdar and Mr. Mainak Bose; Dr. S Bandyopadhyay's group, Mr Jaydeep Chaudhuri, Mr. Avik Acharya Chowdhury and Mr. Anirban Manna; Dr. S Roychowdhury's group, particularly Dr. Somsubahra Nath for their help and support. Help of Dr. Sunny Sharma, Dr. Ranendu Ghosh, Sujit Basak and Rakesh Chatterjee, Biprashekar Chakraborty, Manidip Shasmal is highly appreceiable I would like to thank Mr. Saikat Majumder (Bose Institute) for his earnest cooperation in providing me with chemicals when I needed them most.

I would like to express my gratitude towards the technical staffs without whose help this thesis would have been impossible. Mr. Kshudiram Naskar's help in animals, Mr. Suresh kumar enthusiasm and helping attitude are extremely praiseworthy. I would also like to thanks Mr. Gopal Mandal, Mr. Ashim Roy and Mr. Samir Roy for their help and assistance. I also express my sincere gratitude to the cleaning staffs and security personnel foe providing us with a proper work environment.
I am thankful to all other staff members of different divisions of IICB. I thank the Library and documentation division, Accounts and bill section, Stores and purchase section, R & C section, Animal house facility, Transport section, Establishment section, Dispatch section and all other sections and divisions of IICB for their continuous help and support during my tenure.

Lastly, I would to honour all those animals who sacrificed their lives for my research. I would be always grateful to them.

I am finishing by acknowledging all my near and dear ones who have loved me and helped me in any form ever in my life and whose name I failed to mention here due to lack of space.

Thank you all
