I am happy that my parents, always a source of strength for me, and my uncle would be relieved now that the thesis is submitted. Their concern made my commitment stronger. Rupa did everything possible for me to complete my thesis. I have troubled her with many long and boring lectures on topics on which she might be more qualified to speak. I thank her for her patience and all her support. I also thank my brother Hemant for all his concerns when he stayed with us. I thank Vijayjee and my son Manan for support and inspiration.
