ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would like to convey my sincere gratitude and thanks to all those people who have helped me in some or other ways throughout this study.

The first name which must be pronounced is that of Dr. R. K. Kale, my supervisor, mentor and guide. Under his guidance I had the privilege to carry out this fascinating area of research. I express my whole-hearted gratitude to him for showing me the correct approach to pursue both in academic and in general. I owe a special thanks to him for his affection and friendly behaviour which helped me not only in this investigative endeavour but also at personal level. I highly appreciate his exemplary counselling, constant encouragement and kindness in times when I needed them most to achieve my targets.

My sincere gratitude is due to Prof. Rajendra Prasad, Dean, School of Life Sciences, JNU for providing me the excellent facilities to carry out this research work. I will also cherish his amiable and friendly gestures during my stay in JNU. I am highly grateful to Prof. A. R. Rao for his suggestions, encouragement and keen interest in this work. I would like to express my gratitude to Prof. N. Z. Bacquer, Dr. R. N. K. Bameezat and Dr. P. K. Yadav for their qualities of learning, tenderness and humour which will always remain as a source of inspiration.

I am deeply thankful to my colleagues Dharaminder, Mayank, Kiranmati and Kajori for their timely help, support and cooperation. I also thank Gagan, Rajesh and Deepti for their help and friendly gesture. I would like to thank Mr. Rashid and Roshan for their help in laboratory.

I would like to thank Dr. Meera Gupta, Dr. Ashu Bhan Tikku and Dr. S. Banerjee for their idea and help. I heartily thank Shiva Prakash, Ramesh and Andrew for humorous attitude and the help extended by them whenever I needed.

It will be always in my memory, the time I have spent with my most beloved friends Rana, Pratap, Biskt. Chitra, Anil, Guddu, Pushp, K.M. Veena, Vaishali, Ashutosh and Abhay who have cheered me and always available whenever most needed. I am extremely thankful to Rana and Pratap for their help extended by them during my thesis preparation.

I feel sorts of words to express my feelings to my friends (since M. Sc. times), Sanjiv, Rashmi, Saini, Rohit, Nevil, Pandit, Shinde, Hemant, Anil, Rajesh, Shali, Keena and Shastri for their affection and humorous attitude. Special thanks are due to Sanjiv for never saying no in any kind of help needed to me since seven years of our friendship.
I am highly grateful to Dr. B. Venkataiah for his affection and encouragement throughout the years we have been in contact. I also thank Dr. Supryya for her friendly and humorous attitude towards me.

During my stay in JNU, I have been in the company of some nice persons including Nagendra, Jaspreet, Anjana, Indranil, Charu, Anupama, Sidhu, Suresh, Archie, Padma, Parida, Bhaskar, Ranjan, Dhana, Gurumurthi, Arjun, Sneh, Sanjay and Rajesh. Besides them, many more have left an indelible impression on me, and to all of them I am thankful from my heart. I can not forget the days I have spent with my childhood friend Hind Prakash and BSc friends Kamala, Gyan, Sardev and others.

I am also thankful to Dr. Asiti Sharma and Dr. Lochab for their help and cooperation during my experimentation at NSC.

The staff members of Central Instrument Facility deserve a special thanks specially Mr. Khan, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Sharma and Rajendra for their help in operating the instruments. I am highly grateful to Dr. Tyagi (the animal house in-charge) and other staffs of animal house especially Mr. Pandey and Padmakar for their all time help. The highly competent staffs at BIC, Dr. Rao, Charit and Inderjeet are also acknowledged for their help in case of any problem.

Thanks are due to Dr. (Mrs.) Rekha Kale and her family for warmth affection shown by them and welcoming attitude at any time of the day; and never letting me feel that I was away from my home.

This page will be incomplete without expressing feelings from the core of my hearts towards my grandparents, parents, uncles, aunts, brothers, sister and other family members who have supported me under all the circumstances. I will be always indebted for their undemanding love and support. They are the one who have showered most affection and praise whenever I have achieved something. I am grateful to Lal Chandra for all kind of help extended by him from childhood till days we have spent together.

Financial assistance from UGC/JNU in the form of JRF and SRF is gratefully acknowledged.

Lastly, I would like to extend my thanks to those from whom I have learnt or shared some thing but might have inadvertently forgotten to acknowledge.
