At the onset, I pray and thank the Almighty, my ‘Sai’ for showering me with his grace and blessings to take up this research work and complete it successfully.

My sincere gratitude to God for giving me wonderful parents whose love and blessings have always boosted me and kept me going in life. Their constant support and motivation has led me till this path of success.

The hunger and thirst for a deep knowledge calls for an insight. Academic motivation and guidance contributes much to such a task, for which I am duly grateful to my guide Dr. Tushar R. Kathi, Reader and Head of Economics Department, K.S.K.V Kachchh University. This work has been accomplished because of his enthusiasm, constant motivation, guidance, his valuable time and comments which have provided an intellectual environment and moral support in completing this study.

I am thankful to K.S.K.V. University ex. Vice Chancellor O.C. Gor and Registrar Anilbhai Gor for giving their consent to carry forward my Ph.D work.
My sincere thanks to my husband Mr. Pankaj Saxena for being so understanding and supportive throughout this exercise. Also for being deprived of my essential care and bearing with my erratic timings, while oscillating between my workplace and home during my research work.

My heartfelt and deepest gratitude to my sister Mrs. Sangeeta Saxena who has been my pillar of strength, my mentor and an emotional support at every stage of my life, especially during the research work. I thank her from the bottom of my heart for being with me and encouraging me during my stagnant moments. Her technical and software knowledge has helped me to endeavor this task easily.

My regards and gratitude to my brother-in-law, Brigadier Deepak Saxena, who despite being so busy with his hectic schedule, helped me to channelize my work at the initial stages and inspired me to work harder to accomplish this task. His guiding comments have been a great help to me in my work.

I take this opportunity to render my sincere gratitude to my friend Mr. Hari Pillai for devoting so much time and helping me with the research work. His extensive support and efforts in all technical aspects and printing is commendable, without which the project would not be accomplished. I also thank his wife Mrs. Dhanalakshmi Pillai who has played a significant role by allowing him to help me.

My gratitude to Dr. N. T. Hingorani, Late Prof. R.N. Dave and Dr. L.R. Mehta, who have led me to the doors of academic skills, whatever little I posses.

During my tenure of work, many people have supported me. I take this opportunity to genuinely thank Dr. Sushil Dharmani - Principal T.A.S.C Adipur, for being accommodating; my colleagues and well-wishers, for motivating and helping me in their small ways in completing this task.

A warm thanks to Prof. Bhavesh Bhatt for motivating and encouraging me positively throughout the project.

Last but not the least, I express my fondest love and a big thankful hug to my loved ones-my niece and nephew Archit and Ankita for being so understanding while being deprived and ignored of my love and care on many occasions.
