ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am deeply indebted to a number of individuals without whose help this work would not have been possible. My supervisor, Professor G. Haragopal, has been a constant source of inspiration and guidance. In spite of his busy schedule, he evinced keen interest in my work and offered valuable suggestions in overcoming the problems, normally associated with any research. My thanks to Professor Rajan Harshe whose kind indulgence about my work moved me very much. Thanks are also due to other Faculty members of the Political Science Department, University of Hyderabad, for their frequent enquiries about the progress of my work.

I express enormous gratitude to Dr. N.G. Satish, who helped me in drafting the questionnaire, correcting the drafts and in educating me the various parameters of research analysis. I am thankful to a number of friends - Annamalai, Gangi Reddy, Prakash Rao - who helped me in numerous ways. My special thanks to P. Satish Chandra who took keen interest in analysing the data and helping me in taking the final print outs.

I am grateful to Shri T.L. Shankar, Director General of NIRD, for the encouragement given in completing my thesis. Dr. M. Shivism, the doyen of Panchayati Raj, deserves special mention for his constant encouragement and help rendered during the course of the work. My thanks are due to Dr. K.R. Sastry for correcting the drafts and offering valuable suggestions. Thanks also to my colleagues in the Faculty of Panchayati Raj - Dr. Surat Singh, Ms. Sarumathi, Dr. A.C. Jena, Shri C.P. Vithal, Dr. K.B. Srivastava and others for their valuable help rendered from time to time.

I would be failing in my duty if I don't acknowledge the help rendered by the staff of the libraries of the University of Hyderabad and the National Institute of Rural Development. Thanks also to Shri Krishna Gopal, Ramchander and other staff of the Computer Centre, NIRD, for all the help rendered while carrying out the analysis. A special word of gratitude to Rev. Mathew John for translating the questionnaire into Malayalam and Rev. M.M. Abraham for giving me access to the library of the Henry Martin Institute of Islamic Studies, Hyderabad. I am also grateful to Shaji and Kochu Koshy for the help rendered in collecting the primary data.

Finally, my deepest gratitude to my parents, brothers and sisters-in-law for the support given during the course of my work. My wife, Beena and son, Ashwin deserve thanks for putting up with all the inconveniences caused by my work.
