ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First of all, I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to my two guides, the late Dr. Shiv Kumar, Centre of Advanced Studies in Sanskrit, and Dr. Shailaja Bapat, Department of Sanskrit and Prakrit Languages. Without their guidance and encouragement, this study would not have attained the present shape.

I am grateful to Prof. S. Bhate, Head of the department of Sanskrit and Prakrit Languages, who has given tremendous help and encouragement for my study in the University of Poona.

My research in Poona was made possible by a three-years scholarship from The Eastern Institute, inc., Tokyo. For the help and encouragement, I wish to express gratitude to Prof. H. Nakamura, founder director of the Institute and Prof. J. Abe of the Institute.

I am indebted to Prof. R.N. Dandekar, Prof. S.D. Laddu and Prof. P.D. Navathe for acquiring Sanskrit manuscripts used in this study. I am deeply grateful to the venerable scholars in the Bhandarkar Oriental Research Institute.

Mr. V.L. Manjul, Librarian, B.O.R.I., gave me useful advice about reference materials, further, kindly took pain to introduce me to various libraries. Dr. F. Omae, Shimane International College, Japan, also gave me useful information about the Sanskrit manuscript used in this study. I am extremely thankful to them.

Finally, I wish to thank Prof. J. Kato, Nagoya University, and Dr. T. Wada, Associate Professor, Nagoya University, for their continuous encouragement to complete the study.

(Ko ENDO)