ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This research study would not have been possible without the constant guidance, encouragement, support and motivation of my supervisor Professor H C Narang. I am deeply indebted to him for his observations, critical comments, and extremely helpful suggestions. To Professor Gill I owe sincere thanks for directing me to this symbolically rich area of research.

My late grandfather HE Lyanpo T Tobgyel deserves special mention for his enthusiasm and keen interest in my work. HE Lyanpo Khandu Wangchuk, and Dasho Karma Galey, need to be thanked for their kind cooperation and guidance. The Gangtey Trulku’s kind permission to work on the Gangtey monastery, his interviews and the sharing of his vast knowledge with a non-initiate like me have also contributed immensely to this thesis. I must also thank the Trulku’s brother-in-law for looking after the hospitality arrangements and for taking care of me at the Gangtey Goenpa Guest House.

I am indebted to several helpful and extremely cooperative people amongst whom I need to mention the names of the following: Mr Kunzang Wangdi and Mr Phuntsho Wangdi for their dedicated help in interviewing people, in translating and helping me fill in what was in the beginning an extremely huge void. Ms Dechen for her hospitality and patience and Karma Tshteeen for his time, dedication and intellectual stimulation. Lopon Tashi Penjore for his help with details on Gangtey Goenpa and the Norbu Gyamtsho Mandal/khilkhor. This thesis is largely due to their help, support and intervention. My gratitude to Mr G P Singh, Amit, Vimal, Ms Munni Kumari for their timely help and support as well as my sincere gratitude to Rawatji and Bhagawatiji at CES, for their help.

I would also like to thank Aum J D Tobgyel, Dasho Yanki T Wangchuk, Mr Namgay Wangchuk, Mr Kunzang Wangdi, Mr Sonam Wangchuk, Dr Kunzang Getshen, Mr Wangchuk W Dukpa, and Ms Sangye Om, for their unfailing support and encouragement. An expression of gratitude to my family - Mom, Appa, Tshering, Brucee, Tashi and my four year old daughter Rewa Lhaden for being so patient and her sacrifices in letting Mom work late hours in office, during weekends as well as holidays.
