I am grateful to the Lord Almighty and His grace which has upheld me in all the marvelous endeavors in my life.

I have immense pleasure in expressing my gratitude to my research guide and supervisor, Dr. Beulah Shekhar, Associate Professor, Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli, for her valuable persistent guidance and encouragement throughout this study. She has been my source of inspiration in taking up higher learning.

My sincere gratitude goes to the wonderful children of God who were my subjects of study who have given an opportunity to sneak an in-depth glimpse of their world. My special thanks go to the transgenders Viji, Rangeela, Bharathi and the NGOs along with their volunteers who have guided me in this epic journey.

My deep gratitude goes to the Bishop, Rt. Rev. Dr. J.A.D. Jebachandran who graciously gave me a chance to head the Department of Social welfare, Thoothukudi - Nazareth Diocese. My six years of tenure in the department gave me a profound understanding about the social problems of transgender.
