List of Appendices

Appendix I: The Essentials of a University in a Great Center of Population

Appendix II: Orders of government relating to the substitution of the language and character known to the people

Appendix III: The Persian Language: Act No. XXIX of 1837

Appendix IV: The North-Western Provinces Circular Order of the Sudder Diwany Adawlut, N.W.P

Appendix V: General remarks on Persian instruction: Extracts from Mr. Fink’s Report

Appendix VI: Memorandum by the late Raja Then Babu Sivaprasad

Appendix VII: Memorial Presented to Government in 1873

Appendix VIII: Order making a knowledge of Urdu or Persian a sine quanon for employment in the English offices of Government

Appendix IX: The Causes and Cure of the Backward Condition of Primary Education in N. W. P to Education Commission

Appendix X: Representatives from Nagaree Pracharani Sabha, Meerut sent importance of education in mother-tongue to the Hon’ble W.W. Hunter, L.L.D., C.I.E.

Appendix XI: Some extracts from the evidence given before the Education Commission

Appendix XII: The late Raja Shiv Prasad on the Hindi Characters

Appendix XIII: Court Character and Primary Education in the N.W. P. and Oudh

Appendix XIV: The First Prospectus of 1904

Appendix XV: A Proposed Hindu University
Appendix XVI: The Provisional Scheme: A Hindu University

Appendix XVII: The Hindu University of Benaras: Why it is wanted and what it aims at

Appendix XVIII: The Draft Scheme of the Proposed Hindu University

Appendix XIX: A note on a few Hindi revivalists in the late nineteenth century in the N.W.P and Oudh

Appendix XX: Views of some of Pandit Malaviya's eminent contemporaries

Appendix XXI: Excerpts from Pandit Malaviya's speeches