ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I have great pleasure to express my immense gratitude towards my Research guide Prof.(Dr.) S. S. Suryavanshi, Director of school of physical sciences for his most competent and foreseeing guidance coupled with incessant encouragement at all phases of this work. His involvement in the minutest of the details has given this thesis the present form. I am greatly indebted to him.

It is my great pleasure to thank Dr. I. S. Mulla, Emeritus Scientist (CSIR), C-MET, Pune (Former Scientist ‘F’, NCL, Pune) for introducing me to the field of sensors. I will always thank for his immense help in planning and executing the works in time. His enthusiasm and integral view on research and his mission of providing only high-quality work and nothing less, has made a deep impression on me. His trust and scientific excitement inspired me in the most crucial moments of making right decisions and I find myself privileged to have worked with him. I will always remember the precious time he spent for the discussion whenever it is required.

I wish to especially thank to Hon’ble Vice-Chancellor Prof. (Dr.)N.N. Maldar, Solapur University, Solapur. I am very much thankful to Prof.(Dr) L.P. Deshmukh, School of Physical Sciences, Solapur University, Solapur, and Late Prof.(Dr). P. B. Joshi, Prof. (Dr.) V. B. Patil and Dr. B.J. Lokhande and Prof. (Dr.) P.S.Patil Professor from Shivaji University Kolhapur for encouragement and providing facilities to carry out the experiment and complete this work.

Thanks are reserved for scientists Dr.N.L.Tarwal and Dr. S.H.Mujawar from, South Korea for providing guidance, also Dr. D.J. Late, Scientist, Physical Chemistry Division, CSIR—NCL, Pune, for availing Raman facility and I also thankful for Dr.Pravin Walke from School of Nano Science, and Nanotechnology of Mumbai University for providing the supercapacitor and TEM facilities.

I would like to extend special thanks to Dr. Jayavant Y. Patil for his continuous help throughout the research work. I am also grateful to my senior researchers Mr. Faiyyaj Shaikh, Dr. Ashutosh Rajgure, Dr. L. P. Chickhale, Miss Swati Shahane, Dr. U. R. Ghodake, Mrs. S. M. Kabbur, and all research scholars of the Physics Department for their constant encouragement and valuable suggestions during my research work. I also like to extend my senior researchers thanks to my friends Dr. Rajendra Pawar, Dr. Rahul Kamble, Dr. Mohseen Tamboli, Mr. Pandurang Ghadage. I am also thankful to supporting staff from the laboratory Mr. D. H. Hulle, Mr. H. I. Raut, and Mr. S.M. Durge.

My deepest appreciations are reserved for my Latefather Baliram (Papa), mother Sunanda (Aai), my brother Bajirao, Vijay, my Husband Sharad Patil, My baby Sanskrutee and other family members who have shared my feelings and alleviated my household responsibilities during the research period and good wills and inspiration for my research work.

Finally, I am very much thankful to those who have helped me directly or indirectly during the research work.

Miss. Vandana B. Patil
