ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My project "The Ethics of Early Buddhism: Its Relevance in the Present Day" has successfully accomplished today. Indeed, its successful completion cannot be expected without obtaining proper guidance of supervisor and valuable help of others. Therefore, it is moral responsible for expression of my deep sense of gratitude to the honourable teachers.

I am deeply indebted to all those who are pioneers in the field of Buddhist studies and particularly to those who have worked on Buddhist Ethics. These works have inspired me a lot and have also shown me the path to be followed in this difficult task. In this gracious moment I pay my homage to all my reverend teachers who are no more in this world but their profound blessings are always with me. I pay my deep respect and high regards to Sayadaw Bhadanta Javana, the abbot of Laythar Monastery in Kyaukse and Bhadanta Obhasa, the abbot of Shweyintmar Monastery in Natkyodaw village, Myingyan Township, who initiated me as a novice and monk for encouragement and guidance of learning of Pali literature. Unfortunately, both of them passed away before I could finish my education.

I sincerely express my indebtedness to my supervisor Professor, Dr. Bela Bhattacharaya, Department of Pali, University of Calcutta, for her valuable guidance of my entire research work from the beginning to the end. I am also grateful to our teachers — Prof. Dr. Manikuntala Haldar, Prof. Dr. Saswati Mutsuddy, Head of Department of Pali, Prof. Dr. Jayanti Chatterjee, Dr. Aiswarya Biswas, Department of Pali, University of Calcutta and to my former teachers Professor Dr. Neelima Sinha, Dr. Reader, B. B. Sharma and Dr. Lecturer, Javey, Department of Philosophy, Magdh University, for their suggestions on my studies.

I pay hearty thanks to late Miss. Kum Kum Barua (Daw Kum Kum), Miss. Alo Barua (Daw Shwe Lone), Mr Pradip Barua (U Maung Win) and Mrs Anita Barua, Mr Asok Chakraborty and Mrs Chandan Chakraborty (Daw Cherry), Mr Dipankar Barua (U Bo Gyi) and Mrs Sumita Barua for providing me everything I need and allowance to live in their house while I am studying in India.

I am also deeply indebted to Ven. Jagariya, Shwechan Meditation Center, in East Dagon, Yangon, Ven Cittara, Thirmyain Monastery, in Myittha and Ven. Dr. Pannasami, Buddha Dhamma Ramsi Vihara, in Kuopio, Finland who initiated me to study at Magadh University, Bodhagaya, India. I am also grateful to Ven. Candobhasa who is the abbot in my village, Ven. Vepulla (Shwechan), Ven. Janaka in Punna Village, Myittha and Ven. Vicittasarabhivamsa in Myitkyina, for his teaching to pass Dhammacariya examination and providing me intellectual as well as spiritual.

I express my deep thanks to Dr. U Panninda, the abbot of Shwezayti Monastery in Mingaladon, who advised me to study in Kolkata. I am indebted to Phyway Phway Thwin, UK, for her financial assistance while I was studying M.A. I am extremely thankful to my friends Ven. Dr. Kelasa in Perth, Australia, and Ven Vijayalankarabhivamsa, University of Delhi, my real friends for their advice regarding with English and Pali respectively.

I am indebted to my father, Late U Hmat Tin, mother Daw San Nyunt, my sisters U Maung Soe and Daw Myint Kyi and U Win Oo and Daw Aye Aye Win, brothers U Myint Thein and Daw Kyin Mya, U Soe Nein and Daw Myo Kyi, U Ko Ko Maung and Daw Kay Thi Oo, and relatives who supported and encouraged me as much as they can since my novice –Sāmanera.

I express my heartfelt gratitude to Daw Tin Htay and her family in Kyaukse, U Thein Tun and Daw Le Le Win in Kyaukse, U Kyaw Htay and Daw Sway Sway Win in Kyaukse, U Paw Lar and Daw Nyein Nyein, (Nay La Thu Kha family) in Kyaukse, U Pauk and Daw Khin Phyon Yee, in Kyaukse, Miss Daw Chit Tok, U Tun Shwe and Daw Hla Tok, U Thet Way and Daw Chit Mya in Pinlebhu, and Mr Kyaw Gyi in Kyaukpadaung for their help as well as encouragement.

I am deeply thankful to Madam Anjana Datta and her staffs from our Central Library of University of Calcutta, for their arrangement in collection of materials concerning my work. Without their help, I cannot complete my work. I am also grateful to all referred authors. I express my deep thanks to Myanmar Buddhist people whose names cannot be mentioned here.

And last but not the least, I am thankful to Ven. Dr. Sirinda, the abbot of Kolkata Myanmar Monastery in Kolkata, all my friends –Ven. Therinda, Ven. Pannaveda, Ven. Adicca, Phramaha Thongchai Thammathawee, Phramaha Thawatchai Hanghkumod, Mr. Pairoj Phaodee, well wishers and other persons who helped me in any way to complete the project.
