ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my thankfulness to my supervisor Dr. Bina Srivastava, Reader, Department of Teacher Education, Sri Durgaji P.G. College, Chandeshwar, Azamgarh for her successful guidance to me relating to my Ph.D. thesis. It is a hard fact that without her active cooperation and help my dream of submitting Ph.D. thesis would not have been translated into reality, for which I shall ever remain indebted to her.

Although without parents' support and blessing any work could not get completed. My father Sri Shiv Narain Shukla and my mother Smt. Uma Shukla, younger brother Sudeep Shukla, Sandeep Shukla and Rishabh Shukla have generated encourage inside me to perform research work. Also my loving sisters Shalini, Aradhna & Anshita helped a lot in this study. The most thanks to my best friends and well wishers Abhishek Singh and Manish Shukla. These peoples have helped a lot in completion of this study.

My special thanks to my wife Mrs. Poonam Shukla without whose sustained interest and inspiring suggestions, the work could not have been reached a successful end. She has catalyzed me to submit this research work for Ph.D. degree.

I would be unfair if I do not recognize the Almighty God and Goddesses support for making me healthy and cheerful during the whole course of study without which completion of this work is not possible.

I am fully conscious of some of the errors and imperfections, which a critical reader may find in this thesis. I would request them kindly to overlook them.

I am thankful to Mr. Jitendra Singh for his careful and painstaking composing efforts of my manuscripts. I must acknowledge the utmost sincerity that apart from the aforementioned persons, my gratitude is to all those, who had helped me, in one way or the other in completion of this uphill task.
