Acknowledgements

I wish to express my heartfelt thanks and immense gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Dinesh Kumar Tripathi, Ex. Reader and Head, Department of Botany, S. D. J. P. G. College Chandeshwar Azamgarh U.P. It's beyond the limit of expression to articulate my gratitude to him for his continuous inspiration. My sense of gratitude to him cannot be simply framed in the boundary of words.

I am indeed grateful to my co-supervisor Dr. Khalid Kafeel Khan, Reader and Head Department of Botany, S. N. P. G. College Azamgarh, U.P. for his inspiration, precious advice and constant support for the completion of my research work. It is my privilege to express profound sense of gratitude to him for his gracious help in my research work.

I strongly acknowledge the encouragement of Dr. Ganesh Prasad, Ex. Reader and Head, Department of Genetics and Plant Breeding, S.D.J. P.G. College Chandeshwar, Azamgarh, U.P. for his valuable suggestion, inspiration, encouragement, moral support and guidance for sound completion of thesis.

I am highly grateful to Dr. Durga Prasad Diwedi, Ex. Principal, S.D.J.P.G. College Chandeshwar, Azamgarh, U.P. for providing me the experimental field and all other necessary facilities for this research work. I am also thankful to his precious advice and constant support.

Grateful thanks are due to Dr. Lalji Singh Yadav, Ex. Principal S.D.J.P.G. College Chandeshwar, Azamgarh, U.P. for unconditional and limitless support of my higher studies as well as my concern from B.Sc. to Ph.D. and at present. His guidance and motivation made me to challenge and overcome the personal and professional problem of my life.

I owe my special thanks to Dr. Iftekhar Ahmad Principal, S. N. College, Azamgarh. Cordial thanks are due to Dr. Syed Javed Ali, Dr. Mirza Zeeshan Beg, Dr. Masood Akhtar, Mr. Ishtiaque Ahmad, Dr. Tausif Ahmad, Dr. Mirza Jaish Beg, Dr. Abdullah, Department of Botany, S. N. College, Azamgarh and Dr. Wohab Khan, Ex. Reader and Head, Department of Chemistry S. N. College Azamgarh, U.P. for their interest and continuous support to overcome the academic difficulties faced during my research work.

I am highly thankful to the Dr. S. S. Yadav and Dr. R. P. Yadav, Pulse Crop Section, Division of Genetics, IARI New Delhi and Head, Pulse Research Section, Department of Genetics and Plant Breeding, N.D. University of Agricultural and Technology Kumarganj Faizabad U.P. for providing different genotypes/varieties of Chickpea (Gram) for this research work.
Biometrical analyses were done at the C S A University of the Agriculture and Technology, Kanpur and the help rendered by Dr. O. P. Singh, Department of Agronomy in this regard is gratefully acknowledged.

Thanking the people especially friends are difficult. A note of thanks seems so inadequate because of the memory created in their company. I owe my heartiest thanks to colleague and most near to heart friends Mrs. Ratnesh Pandey to upgrade the level of confidence in research and personal life. She is always inspiring me as a classmate since my college days. Though we are far away but I feel her presence always with me. I am deeply indebted to my seniors Mrs. Nilima Singh and Mr. Ajay Kumar Yadav for their guidance, remarks and suggestion to dominate the problems in the research. I cannot forget Dr. Vineeta Tripathi (Scientist CDRI Lucknow), for her sympathy and care during the initiation of thesis writing. I deeply acknowledge Ms. Reena Yadav to wipe my tears in my unfavourable days. I am deeply thankful to my sister Ms. Sandhya Yadav for their affection and encouragement during my studies. I am immensely gratified by the overwhelming and unconditional affection bestowed upon me by Mrs. Urmila Yadav throughout the course of my work.

This work was not completed if I did not have the help of Mr. Deepchand Maurya, Mr. Mannu Ram for the sowing and caring the crop on the field respectively.

I am highly thankful to my beloved Parents Sri Radha Singh Yadav & Smt. Bageshwari Devi, Uncle Sri Garib Singh Yadav, Brother Late Sri Tejbahadur Singh Yadav, Sri Om Prakash Singh Yadav, Brijesh Kumar Yadav, Shamsher Kumar Yadav, Hridesh Kumar Yadav, Shailesh Kumar Yadav, Vijay Bahadur Singh Yadav, and all other family member for conferring their love, affection and for their indefatigable encouragement & patience during the course of this study. Without their support this work would not have shaped up the way it has.
