ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Bowing down, let me thank God, the Almighty for His kindness - knowing full well that He stretches His hand towards the most needy, and that without His abundance grace nothing would have been possible." If ye give thanks, I will give you more". (Holy Quran 14:7)

Words cannot convey my obligation and indebtedness to Prof. (Dr.) A. Nizarudeen, Professor and Head, Department of Arabic, University of Kerala, under whose ample guidance the course of this study proceeded. His valuable assistance, encouragement and inspiration, his intelligent advices, cooperation, immense patience and paternal care definitely helped me much for getting this work materialized.

I am also indebted to Mr. Mohammed Qaraar, The Cultural Attaché, Embassy of State of Qatar, New Delhi formerly, and Mr. Mahamad Issa Ghanamah, Faculty of Arabic, ASPIRE Academy, Doha, State of Qatar for their valuable suggestions, support and providing some valuable references and copies of manuscripts during the course of the study.

Let me take this opportunity to convey my sincere gratitude to the Chief Librarian and members on the staff, Kerala University Library, Thiruvananthapuram, not just for making all the material facilities available but also for extending the mental support, much needed through the course of this study.

Expression of gratitude to my family members, friends and colleagues are beyond words, for, among other things, they have helped me a lot by their valuable exchange of their views on the topic. Finally profound indebtedness to all those who have contributed to make the study a success is placed herewith the promise that withy will be remembered in my prayers for ever.
