Acknowledgement

I wish to express my deep and Sincere feeling of gratitude to Prof. A.N. Sharma, Head, Department of Anthropology Dr. H.S. Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar (M.P.) for his immense interest, appreciable guidance, continuous encouragement and valuable help at all the stages of this work, official works and for providing research facilities from the department. I am equally thankful to Dr. (Smt.) Nivedita Sharma, for encouraging unvoiced, consistent and strong moral support during my ph. D. work.

My thanks are also due to king people of Hill Korwas tribe of Surguja District, who supported me during the field work as they answered my questions with endurance and patient. I also thankful to the Doctors and Health workers of Surguja District who provided me some important information about the medical and health related aspects of Hill Korwas of Surguja District.

No words of acknowledgement would match the lone, affection and patience of both my husband Mr. Vikash Shrivastava and my daughter Gopali Shrivastava for bearing with me and being a constant source of encouragement and support to me. I am especially thankful to my uncle Ajay Shrivastava who help and support during my fieldwork at Surguja District.

A successful completion of a thesis is an ever-made possible by a lot of people around. I feel it as my most pleasant obligation to place on record the boundless affections, constant co-operation, in dispensable encouragement and continuous inspiration of my be loved parents, Mother Smt. Mithalesh Khare and father Shri M.P. Khare, my Mother-in-law Smt. Indira Shrivastava, my dear sisters Shalini Khare, Anshu Khare, Yamini Khare and other member's of my family.
I take a special vote of thanks to Mr. Mithlesh Choubey and all the teaching and non-teaching staff of, Department of Anthropology, Dr. H.S. Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar and Jawaharlal Nehru Library of the University for their constant help.

Last but not least, we express our profound regards to ward our friends, and all those who directly or indirectly helped crucially in bringing out our thesis.
