I can see the good shape of my thesis because of their help and suggestions in formatting the entire thesis. They always being there and bearing with me the good and bad times during my wonderful days of Ph.D.

Words fail when I wish to express my gratitude to all my friends and relatives for the constant encouragement and support.

It’s my fortune to gratefully acknowledge the support of some special individuals. Words fail me to express my appreciation to Mr. Ramanathan and Mrs. Jeya for their support and generous care. They always beside me during the happy and hard moments to push me and motivate me. A journey is very easier when you are travel together. Interdependence is certainly more valuable than independence. Thank you doesn’t seem sufficient but it is said with appreciation and respect to both of them for their support, encouragement, care, understanding and precious friendship.
Most importantly, none of this would have been possible without the love and support of my family and I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to my loved ones. At this moment of accomplishment, I am longing for my Sister-in-law, Mrs. P. Anju who took the lead to heaven before the completion of this work. I am forever indebted to sister-in-law for her unconditional love and endless blessings. No words can actually describe her everlasting love to me. I owe a lot to her; she encouraged and helped me at every walk of my life. Her unwavering faith and confidence in my abilities always motivated me.

I deeply thank my parents, Mr. Killer Joseph and Mrs. Susila Sironmani, for their unconditional trust, timely encouragement, and endless patience. It was their love that raised me up again when I got weary. Their undying love, encouragement and prayers have kept me going throughout my endeavors. Special and profound thanks to my brother Mr. K. Prabhu Dhanraj and my sister Miss. K. Christina Dhanarani who offered invaluable support and humor over the years. They have been a constant source of love, concern, strength and support all these years both mentally and financially. Most of all, Special mention goes to my joyful and lovely nephews Prince and Pranav, whose sweet smile and baby talk melted all my hurdles during tough times in my life. I would like to extend my deepest gratitude to my grandmothers for their support and blessings. I consider myself the luckiest in the world to have such a supportive family, standing behind me with their love and support.
