ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

When I registered for my Ph.D., on the topic "Gandhism in Indo-Anglian Novels (1986-1991)" under the supervision of Dr. B. Regina Papa, I never thought that the research work would prove to be a rich and complex experience. I have learnt under the guidance of Dr. B. Regina Papa that 'sincerity of purpose' and 'hard work' are the two most essential traits that every researcher should cultivate. To work with her was a sheer scholarly pleasure. I discovered the wide range of literary concepts, the depth of their meaning, and the significance of their applications in every discussional session I had with her. I am deeply indebted to Dr. B. Regina Papa, for her consistent guidance and sustained encouragement, without which the work would not have seen the light of the day.

I am grateful to the authorities of the Gandhigram Rural Institute (Deemed University), particularly Dr. M. Aram, the former Vice-Chancellor, for initiating me into research. Subsequently, Sri. D.K. Oza activated my work and the present Vice-Chancellor Dr. T.R. Natesan has been a great motivating force in completing the work. I place on record my sincere thanks to them all.
Prof. M.S. Prabhakaran, Dean, Faculty of English and Language, has been an unfailing friend and guide me at all stages of my research work. I am immensely influential to him and to my other colleagues in the Department of English.

I am grateful to Dr. A. Pitchai, Department of Tamil, with genuine concern in my advancement, kept my spirit flaunted in moments of despair, which I hope that every searcher one time or other is destined to feel.

I duly acknowledge the untiring help received from R. S. Jayaraman, Librarian, Alagappa University. Only an tive mind like his could decipher the hidden incongruities in errors that go unnoticed by others. I owe a special t for his patient proof-reading of the typescripts. I am so grateful to Sri. N. Arumugam, Librarian, Gandhi ram Institute for providing the materials needed for my search.

I am thankful to all my good friends at Gandhi and raikudi for their willing help rendered at every stage research. I am greatly indebted to Sri. R. Dh. dputy Registrar, Alagappa University, for the extent to ich he has been a prop in my life which is beyond any val thanks. My thanks are due to the 'Sundars', for all their invaluable and unforgettable support. What I owe to Sundar and children cannot be adequately repaid.

I owe my thanks to Mr. Vasudevan and Mrs. S. Alagu for their rough typing assistance; Sri.K. Thiagarajan and S. Vairamani for computerising the work at a very short notice; and Sri.M. Ganesan for the wrapper printing and V. Lakshmanan for the neat binding work.

Last but not the least is my family; my beloved parents, my wife and little kids, and my affectionate elders for the loving sustenance I have derived from their care and forbearance. To these loving souls, I dedicate my work.
