ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study has been made possible under the able supervision of my teacher professor Brij Raj Chauhan, who guided this work at every step. I express my profound gratitude for his scholarly criticism and teacherly affection. I am thankful to Professor T.K. Gommen, who gave meaningful insights to the data during my stimulating discussions with him. I am very much indebted to Dr. A. Satya Narayana for the constant goading and ready help in many stages of this work. It is a pleasant duty offering thanks to Shri K.K. Gaur who extended his helping hand in more than one ways in the work. I am thankful to Madurai Kamraj University for granting study leave, which enabled me to complete this work. I gratefully acknowledge the study grant offered by the I.C.S.S.R. which enabled me to consult many libraries. On the field, the Collectors of the districts and other district level officials Block Development Officials were quite co-operative. It is a pleasure recording my gratefulness to all the persons mentioned above. I sincerely thank all the people interviewed during the course of enquiry who helped me, looked-after me and fed me during my stay in the villages.

I must also thank Shri Munendra Kumar for typing the thesis as neatly and correctly as possible. Lastly, but certainly not the least this work would have never been possible without the co-operation of Rajeswari, my wife, and son Ram Kumar.
