Contents

Prologue:
Understanding the Lives of Miners 14 - 21

Part One: Work, Time, and Politics

Chapter Two:
Long day, Flexible Hours: 1890s – 1930s 23 - 62

Chapter Three:
Multiple Times, Unified Process: 1950s – 70

Part Two: Precarious Life, Terrible Work

Chapter Four:
Classifying Accidents: The Meaning of Work Hazards, 1890s-1960s 101 - 141

Chapter Five:
Morphology of Accidents: 1900-1950s 142 - 179

Chapter Six:
Negotiating the Mines: The Politics of Safety, 1890s-1960s 180 - 211
Part Three: Life in the Mines

Chapter Seven:
Reproduction of Labour and the Politics of Wage: 1890s-1960s

Chapter Eight:
Work and Family: Re-claiming Human Life in the Industrial Space, 1890s-60s

Chapter Nine:
Drinking Culture and Class Conflict: 1920—1940

Chapter Ten:
Epilogue: Meaning of Development, Experience of Work

Abbreviations and Glossary:

Bibliography:
References

Appendices