CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>List of Tables/Figures/Box/Map</th>
<th>iv</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>List of Photo</td>
<td>v</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abbreviations</td>
<td>vi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Preface</td>
<td>vii-xi</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

INTRODUCTION: SOCIOLOGICAL RELEVANCE AND MODES OF ENQUIRY 1-28

CHAPTER 1: SOCIOLOGY OF EDUCATION: EXPLORING THE DYNAMICS OF STATE AND CIVIL SOCIETY 29-57

1.1 Theoretical Perspectives 29-34
1.2 Education as an Arena of Celebration of the Dominant Class Ideology: An Antithesis to the Rights Agenda of Education 34-43
1.3 State and Education Reconsidered 43-44
1.4 The Welfare State and Education: Constitutional Landmarks 44-48
1.5 Civil Society and State 49-52
1.6 State, Civil Society and Education 52-57

CHAPTER 2: THE STATE OF MANIPUR AND IMPHAL DISTRICT: UNDERSTANDING THE SOCIOLOGICAL LANDSCAPE 58-70

2.1 A Brief Socio-Historical Accounts of the Origin of the Manipuris 59-60
2.2 Emergence of Hinduism 60-62
2.3 Social Status of Women 62
2.4 Economic and Political Organization 62-63
2.5 Field Site: Imphal District 63-67
2.6 Education in Imphal District 67-70

CHAPTER 3: CHOOSING SCHOOLS FOR CHILDREN: SEEING THROUGH PARENTS' EYES 71-125

3.1 Household Economic Status and Schooling of Children: Agricultural Occupation 71-74
3.2 Weaving and Other Economic Activities 74-79
3.3 Household Expenditure on Education of Children 79-81
3.4 Housing Conditions and Learning Facilities for Children at Home 81-83
3.5 School Choice of Parents: Mapping the Future of Children 83-92
3.6 Morality, Discipline, Dressing, Speech Forms, Examinations 92-102
3.7 Ambivalence of Parents towards Private and Government Schools 102-110
3.8 Whither Accountability: Inspection System: Why It Matters 110-112
3.9 Government is Blind 112-114
3.10 Feminisation of Teaching Profession: A Risk 114-115
3.11 Good SchoolingCompensates a Fallen Society: Parental Concerns 116-118
3.12 Economic Returns to Education: Only Half Truth: Parental Opinion 118-119
3.13 Epidemic of Violence and Conflict: Schooling of Children in the 119-123
CHAPTER 4: HAS THE STATE FAILED? LOOKING THROUGH A GOVERNMENT SCHOOL

4.1 Physical Dimensions of School Resources: The School Building
4.2 Classrooms, Furniture, Windows and Doors
4.3 Teaching-Learning Material Aids
4.4 Basic Conveniences and Ancillary Facilities
4.5 Distribution of Mid-Day Meal
4.6 Grievance Raised by the Cook and the Head Teacher
4.7 Corruption and Theft
4.8 Human Dimensions of School Resources: The Teaching Staff
4.9 Teachers’ Qualification and On Training to be a Teacher
4.10 Inside the Classroom: Maintaining Order and Discipline
4.11 Methods of Teaching
4.12 Teachers Beyond the Territory of Teaching as a Vocation
4.13 School Education and Violence

CHAPTER 5: CIVIL SOCIETY INTERVENTIONS: ROLE OF CHRISTIAN ORGANISATIONS AND PRIVATE SCHOOLS

5.1 The Arrival of Missionaries in Manipur
5.2 Don Bosco School: Chingmeirong
5.3 Preparing for the Incalculable: The Youths through Education
5.4 The Teacher: Its Myriad Journey of Dedication
5.5 Teaching-Learning Methods In and Outside the Classroom
5.6 Discipline, Examination and Ranking
5.7 School Children in the Line of Crossfire
5.8 Bosco Mangaal (Bosco Light), Chingmeirong
5.9 Opening of Literacy Centers: Modus Operandi
5.10 Teaching-Learning Material Aids, Methods of Teaching: A Joyous Experience
5.11 Literacy Campaign, Mobile Library Facilities: Reaching the Unreached Children
5.12 Bethel School, Nambol Phoijing
5.13 Its Inception and Rough Journey
5.14 The School Building and Infrastructural Facilities
5.15 Discipline and Obedience: Ingredients of Holistic Development of Students
5.16 Accountability
CHAPTER 6: CONCLUSION 237-258

6.1 Households and Schooling of Children: High Social Motivation 237
6.2 Government School Doomed to Fail 238-241
6.3 Hard Choices for Households 241-242
6.4 Civil Society at Work 242-244
6.5 All Round Dependence 244-246
6.6 Civil Society: Its Limitations and Possibilities 246-248
6.7 Schooling of Children in the Line of Crossfire and Violence 248-249
6.8 Right to Education: A Continuing Journey 249-250
6.9 Planning for Educational Right of Children: State Government Initiatives 250
6.10 Accountability 250-254
6.11 Synergy between State and Society 254
6.12 Creating an Enabling Environment 254-258

References 259-265
Appendix