I am profoundly grateful to the supervision and guidance of PROF. ANAND KUMAR, Centre for the Study of Social Systems, School of Social Sciences, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, for his prolific guidance, immense inspiration and meticulous effort at every stage of my Thesis.

I am deeply grateful to Prof. Aasha Kapur Mehta, IIPA, New Delhi who has inspired at different stages of my work and inculcated the field-view approach within me to understand the grass-root reality in a holistic perspective. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Rajkishor Meher, Reader in Sociology, Nabakrushna Choudhury Centre for Development Studies, Bhubaneswar, for providing the information, and research materials on SHGs and Poverty in Orissa. The Annual Research in Progress Workshop which is organized by Prof. Anand Kumar at Sociology Centre, JNU, is certainly a platform for researchers to share the progress of their work, where I got the valuable suggestion from the teachers, experts, seniors as well as juniors, I convey thanks to all of them. My special thanks to Mr. Akshaya Panigrahi, Assistant Director of Ministry of Commerce & Industries, Kolkata who helped me in tabulation and data analysis. I am thankful to Mr. Raj Kumar Khosla, Consultant, Planning Commission, Govt. of India, who provided the official data on Orissa and the library staffs who cooperated to access the study materials and reports. My thanks are due to Bharat Ji, Suman Ji, Bhupinder Ji, and the librarian of D.S.A library at Sociology Centre, the Central Library and Exim Bank Library at JNU. I also express my sincere thanks to the librarian at Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA) and Nehru Memorial Library Teen Murti Bhawan, New Delhi, for their cooperation in the library and support in maintaining records respectively. My appreciation also goes to the officials of NGO working in Thuamul Pur block – Mr. Sunil Patel of Parivartan and Mr. Dillip Das, Antodaya and social workers of Sahabahagi Abhiyan for the discussion and to Mr. Benupani Sona, the branch manager of Utkal Gramya Bank for sharing the status of SHG-Bank linkage programme in the region.

My heartfelt thanks goes to my friends – Deepak, Giris, Saroj, Manas Bhai, Marshal, Amit, Abdul Wahid, Naseem Ahmed, Asish Rajnan Nayak, Abhishek Sharma, Manoranjan Nayak and to the seniors Sanjay Pratap, Ramanath Bhai, Renu Vinod, Sonia
Ji Akhtar Ali, Birendra Suna, Iswar Naik and Aswani Bhai for their inspiration and cooperation. My sincere thanks goes to Iswar Chandra Mohanty for helping me in undertaking strenuous field investigation work in spite of his busy study schedule. During the field work in Kalahandi, Girjasankar, Ajaya, Abhishek assisted me in collecting data and translating Kui language spoken by the Kandha tribe. I would also like to thank Kiran Sharma who provided critical support in editing the chapters. I am indebted to the respondents who are residing in remote, inaccessible hill tract region of Thuamul Rampur block in Kalahandi district, who were generous in sharing their valuable time at the cost of their livelihood during the field visit and revealing the issues and the challenges the villagers confront in their day to day life.

I express my sincere gratitude to my parents, brothers - Jitendra, Akshaya and sister Nirupama for the caring, affection and their cheerful encouragement and support.
