ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The successful completion of this thesis has been possible due to the help and support of different individuals, starting the generation of idea, collection and processing of data till the writing and editing of the final work.

I would like to express my sincerest gratitude first to my Supervisor, Dr. Sunil Kumar De, Professor, Department of Geography, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong for his kind help and guidance in carrying out my research and providing me all types of help and valuable advice.

I am grateful to the Faculty Members Dr. Nibedita Das Pan, Associate Professor and Head; Ms. Jimmi Debbarma, Assistant Professor; Ms. Mousami Debbarma, Assistant Professor and Dr. Saptarshi Mitra, Assistant Professor), of the Department of Geography and Disaster Management, Tripura University for giving me the opportunity of pursuing my research, supporting me in every way during the time of my work.

I am also indebted to Prof. Arabindo Ghosh of the Department of Geological Sciences, Jadavpur University; Prof. S. R. Jog of the Department of Geography, University of Pune; Prof. Sunando Bandyopadhyay of the Department of Geography, University of Calcutta and Prof. Guru Prasad Chattopadhyay of the Department of Geography, Visva Bharati University for the help and suggestion in different stages of my research.

I would like to thank to Ms. Sushmita Paul, Sri Kapil Ghosh, Sri Subhajit Sen, Ms. Sushmita Saha, Ms. Prasamita Sarkar and many other Scholars of the Department as well as of the University for their assistance and encouragement in carrying out my research activities.

I would like to thank to the officials of the Tripura State Pollution Control Board, specially Prof. Mihir Deb, Chairman and Er. Sumantra Chakravarti, Ex-Executive Engineer for their help and co-operation in collecting and testing the water samples of different places and different times along the Haora
River. I would also like to thank the Central Water Commission for their help and cooperation.

I would like to express my thanks to all friends and individuals for rendering their help and cooperation in completing my research.

Last but not the least, I am also thankful to my family members, specially my parents, brother and sister-in-law for their cordial support during the whole period of my research without which it would be very much difficult to complete this work.

Shreya Bandyopadhyay

Department of Geography and Disaster Management,

Tripura University