ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Writing 'Acknowledgement' after the completion of this work made me realize that although it was me who was the protagonist in this research but the real credit goes to 'the person', my Supervisor, who gave me the right vision and idea of faith in my work. The liberty and sense of accountability with perfect professionalism towards my work are the things, I must mention, provided by her in every single meeting or conversation I had with her, eventually turned my efforts into an accomplishment.

The future of any man certainly bear the past he had in his life and life given by parents constitute the whole persona you become throughout present. Hence, I owe everything to my parents and my Bhaiya and Bhabhi who were and are always there to shield me from any odd and worry I happen to have during my five years' research with consistent encouragement and insight.

The support facilitated by the staffs and faculties of Indian School of Mines University (ISMU), Dhanbad; Central Mine Planning and Design Institute Ltd. (CMPDI), Dhanbad; Bharat Coking Coal Ltd. (BCCL), Dhanbad; Central Institute of Mining and Fuel Research (CIMFR), Dhanbad; Indian Agricultural Research Institute (IARI), New Delhi; Remote Sensing and GIS Research Services (RSG1SRS), New Delhi; and, of course, specialised centres of this university, School of Environmental Sciences (SEC), University Science Instrumentation Centre (USIC), Centre for the Study of Regional Development (CSRD), and JNU Central Library are key to the success of my work. Most importantly, my humble gratitude to Milap Sir, Sharma Sir, Gurdeep Sir, Omvir Sir, Vibhas Sir, Srivastav Sir, Raju Sir and to Sri L.L. Pandit, Sri Arjun Pandit for their untiring efforts in assisting me in this work, and taking me as their priority putting everything on backseat.

The entire circle of 'Mitr My Friends' who kept the idea of 'zindagi zindadili ka naam hai' enliven throughout my extremely stressed hours of writing and meeting the deadlines are equally significant in support and sincerity towards this work, specifically, Sanjay, Rakesh, Uttam, Sweta, Ravi, Aditya, Prakash, Pranav, Shindhu, Jasso, Surajji, Alokji, Vinay, Nathbar, Arun, Anuj and Santoshji, while accompanying me for 'doodhi-patti' at Ganga Dhaba in the evening really rejuvenated my senses to work late night though I prefer to go to bed early in the night.

Last but not the least my sincere love to Ankita, Muskan, Ankit, Garima and Babu for their regular persuasion to leave the work and come home kept me attached to both, my work and my family!
