ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It would leave me totally dissatisfied and my work incomplete if I fail to express my gratitude and thanks to all those who helped me find my way through to the completion of this project.

Feelings of deep gratitude and awe fill me when I think of my revered teacher and guide Dr. R.P. Kala, M.S. Reader, Department of Gen. Surgery, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi. His considerate and cooing nature boosted my morale at every step and inspired me to complete the project in its thorough form. His considerate nature is largely demonstrable by the fact that at the very start he pointed out that the work be carried out in a way so as not to prove a financial burden on the patients as well as on myself. Without his guidance it would have been impossible to complete this awesome task. He volunteered to help me even at the oldest hours. I find myself perpetually indebted to him.

The fatherly attitude and affectionate nature of Prof. S.L. Agarwal, M.S., F.R.C.S., Professor & Head of the department of Surgery kept me going through my project with an ease which one can experience only under his shelter. Words can never suffice to express my gratitude for him.

I am highly thankful to Prof. S.P. Atri, M.S., F.R.C.S.; Associate Professor in the department of Gen. Surgery for sending me some very valuable suggestions from his unfathomable sea of knowledge. His disciplined nature inspired me to be more prompt and accurate in my work.

I am highly grateful to Dr. Mohan Singh, M.S., Lecturer, Dr. D. Pratap, M.S., Lecturer, Dr. Rajeev Sinha, M.S., Lecturer and Dr. U.K. Jain, M.S., Pool Officer for their kind and generous attitude by permitting me to carry out my project in their patients. This graceful act by them shall always evoke great respect by me for them.

Friends, especially Dr. Ajay Gupta, and Dr. Shanti Swaroop proved their worth in helping me to complete the project.

My parents have always been a guiding light to me. They were a constant source of inspiration prompting me to complete my project.

I am indebted to my wife, Dr. Veenika Gupta, whose sincere love and sacrifice beyond description, kept me going through this formidable project with all my might with great zeal and enthusiasm.

Shri B.P. Tiwari has typed and worked on the manuscript assiduously. I am sincerely thankful to him for his untiring efforts.
