ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am deeply indebted to many people for their support, encouragement and friendship during the completion of this research work. First of all, I am thankful to almighty God, who empowered me with the will and strength for doing this research and enabled me to complete this thesis. This research would not have been possible without the trust, encouragement guidance and support of many different individuals. I would like to give my sincere thanks to my supervisors Dr. Manish Prateek, Dr. Bharat Bhushan and Dr. Neelu Jyothi Ahuja. I am thankful to their scientific advice, moral support and for providing an enjoyable atmosphere to do this research. Their insightful discussions, useful comments, remarks and valuable suggestions in the most difficult moments of research, helped me a lot during the completion of thesis.

I am thankful to my friends and colleagues at Govt. Polytechnic, Ambala City for their kind help and encouragement. I would also like to thank Mr. Surender Dahiya and Dr. Rakesh Kumar for their tremendous support.

I am extremely grateful to my father, my late mother, my brothers Rajinder, Balvinder, Vijay and brother in law Anil Dadwal for their love and prayer to make this long journey short. Words cannot express how grateful I am to my uncle Sh. Ramsaroop for his unconditional love and encouragement which has always helped me to do better in life. Special thanks to my wife Kavita and lovely son Sulaksh for their love, support and patience during the research.
