CHAPTER 7

Scope of future work

Generation of list of corrective measures, as indicated in Chapter 6, can be incorporated in the developed framework. Additionally, the developed framework can also be extended to incorporate considerations for other industry type as well.

The framework can also be modified to incorporate case studies that can be used to train safety officers and other concerned authorities about the effect of neglecting various safety parameters/considerations.