ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am expressing my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Shankari Sundararaman for her succinct instructions, guidance and reasoned criticisms to make my thesis finalized. At every stage of the work bears her invaluable suggestions, which cleared my concepts and apprehensions. Without her constant guidance and advice, it would not be completed.

I am thanking to Prof. P. Sahadevan, Prof. Man Mohini Kaul, Prof. Uma Singh and Prof. G.V.C. Naidu for their ever helping attitude. I am also acknowledging the enormous support and kindness of Prof. Ganganath Jha, Chairperson Centre for South, Central, Southeast Asian & South West Pacific Studies, who always encourage me throughout my study in the centre.

I am thankful to all the staffs of Centre for South, Central, South West Pacific Studies, and School of International Studies for their constant help in several matters, since I have been here. I am also extending my sincere regards to the library staffs of the Jawaharlal Nehru University.

I am grateful to all the members of the fee waiver committee at the administration block, who granted me the request of it.

In Thailand, I am extending my greatest pleasure and honour to Mahamakut Buddhist University, Mahachulalongkorn Buddhist University, and Thai National Library for providing me all the primary sources with contingency grant, without this support my study is hardly be possible to complete. I am also thankful to Phrakru Varapannakun of Wat Mahadhatu Section 25 and section 5, who had provided me all the primary data.

I am indebted to my friends in JNU, who constantly encouraged and supported me directly or indirectly in the period of my work. They also provided many constructive advices for the integration of the entirely fragments of this research into the form of this thesis.

Finally, I am thanking to my best friend Nattanun Rutvalydate, my staff teachers at Anubanjitkasem School, and my family members, whose support and love, I have taken, which helped me so much in completing my thesis.
