ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Firstly, my gratitude goes to my respected supervisor Prof. K. Warikoo, whose valuable guidance and depth of knowledge on the subject and constructive comments helped me immensely in producing this work. I am indebted for the magnitude of his painstaking efforts, the precise nature of his constructive suggestions and his valuable insights. My seven years of association with him has significantly changed my outlook and moulded my understanding of the Central Asian culture, language and formation of identity and other issues of the region.

I would like to express my gratitude to everybody in the Central Asian Division, School of International Studies and to Dr. S. A. Husain, Dr. A. A. Ansari of the Centre for Persian and Central Asian Studies, School of Language, Literature & Cultural Studies, of the Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi for providing an excellent intellectual environment that sharpened my knowledge relating to the region. I am also thankful to His Excellency the Ambassador and staff members of the Embassy of the Republic of Tajikistan, New Delhi, for having provided me with some study materials, interviews and suggestions whenever approached.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi, for the generosity in funding my thirty days trip to Tajikistan for my research work. Officials there, Dr. M. A. Jawaid and Dr. K.N. Jehangir who helped and guided me at every stage during the submission of the application for my trip. They realized the necessity of my visit and soon sanctioned me the grant.

My special thanks for Prof. Muzaffarr Olimov of Tajikistan who helped me in every possible way during my visit to Tajikistan.

I also thank to friends, U. Qudratzada, Mirwaiz, N. Giri, and Md. Rehan, Shadabul Haque and Shadab Alam and all others without whose help, intellectual as well as manual - this thesis would not have been successfully completed in time.

Needless to say, errors, if any are solely my own.
