Acknowledgement

Words cannot be adequately put to convey the Lord Almighty’s powers and blessings showered upon me to do and complete this research to the best of my ability.

I would like to acknowledge my deepest and strongest gratitude to Dr. Baby Shari. P. A, Associate Professor, Department of Psychology, University of Calicut and my supervising guide for her exceptional guidance, scholarly timely suggestions and continuous encouragement throughout this venture of mine. Without her inspiration and patience this work could not have been materialized.

It will be a great failure of fulfilling my duty if I do not acknowledge the timely help and encouragement of my friend and colleague, Ms. Sumith .K Sridharan for continuing my work. I owe her a great deal for her ideas, comments and the patience she showed to go through my work.

As a researcher, I am very much obliged to my teachers especially Prof. C. Jayan, Head of the Department of Psychology, University of Calicut, for the timely emotional support he gave me, Dr. Manikandan for the statistical help and overall suggestions he provided for my study and Dr. T. Sasidharan for his positive criticisms. I extend my sincere gratitude to Dr. Githanjali Natarajan, Clinical Psychologist, Amrita Institute of Medical Sciences, Ernakulam for helping me during my literature review.

I will never forget my dear friends especially Ramesh Namboodri for his care and support that he rendered during times of despair, Jamsheed Pookat, Arya Nair, Sushmith, Anoop Kumar, Roopesh Kumar, Preethi Madambi and Abinitha .M for being with me during my research. I would like to thank non teaching staffs for their encouragement.

I take this opportunity to show appreciation to Mr. Kunnel Krishnan and Mr. Venu Gopal. It was with their regular pressurizing the authorities that got me the difficult chance to visit the Central Prisons of Kerala at a time when getting a permission to visit the prisons looked distant to me.
I extend my sincere thanks to the prisoners of all the three Central Prisons of Kerala, who served as subjects for my study. I immensely value the help and effort taken by the Authorities and officials at the Central prisons who provided me the opportunity to interact with the prison inmates in a comfortable situation. Never to forget the social welfare officers Mr. Rajesh and Mr. Chandra Babu who constantly helped me by providing me with the information's regarding the prison rules and regulations and with information regarding the prisoners. I would never forget to mention about Mr. Balu and Mrs. Parimala, Bina Photostat, Chenakkal who helped me with the D.T.P work.

Finally, I express my gratitude to my father Mr. Abdulla Balarath, mother Mrs. Rukhiya Abdulla, my siblings Ameera, Ameer, Athif, Abid and my family friends Mr. Sreedharan .K .A, Mrs. Sudha Sarojam .C .S and Ms. Sowmya .K .S who have motivated me and assisted me in completing this dream work of mine. They stood by me during the ups and downs of my life.
