Acknowledgement

At the very outset, I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to my Supervisor, Dr. Zainudin, for his kind encouragement and support. He took keen interest in my work all along and his critical and insightful comments have been considerably helpful in improving the quality of this work.

I am deeply indebted to my Co-Supervisor, Prof. Farhat Hasan, Deputy Director, Centre for Women’s Studies. Without his guidance, this work would not have been possible. He has been a unique combination of mentor, critic, staunch supporter, and tutor. My words fail to acknowledge the kind of help I received from him.

I am also indebted to Professor Shireen Moosvi (Director Centre for Women’s Studies) for her constant encouragement and support. Owing to her efforts, we were provided with a comfortable and helpful environment at the centre, and she took an extraordinary interest in meeting our library and computer-aided requirements.

I am honoured to put on record my special thanks to Professor Emeritus Irfan Habib for the interest and concern he has consistently shown in my research. His suggestions have been great help in improving the quality of this work.

The Centre for Women’s Studies (A.M.U, Aligarh) and the faculty and staff associated with it have been a source of considerable encouragement. For lack of space, I cannot mention all of them here but, the following deserve special thanks: Dr. Nadeem Rizvi, Professor Imtiyaz Hasnain, Dr. Ishrat Alam, Dr. Shadab Bano and Dr. Ehtisham-ud-din.
During the course of my Research, I had discussions with several eminent scholars of women's studies. I would in particular like to thank, Dr. Mary E. Johns, Dr. Seema Kazi, Dr. Indu Agnihotri and Dr. Vasanthi Raman for their constructive suggestions concerning my work. Dr. B.A. Dabla, who is an authority on Kashmir, was kind enough to discuss my work with me, and his critical observations have certainly saved me from several glaring omissions and inadequacies. I am indebted to a well-known lawyer in Kashmir, Mr. Zafar Shah, for enlightening me about the legal niceties and procedure.

I am grateful to the staff of the following libraries which I visited for collection of research material: Maulana Azad Library (Aligarh Muslim University), National Archives of India (New Delhi), Centre for Women’s Development studies (New Delhi), Nehru Memorial museum and Library (New Delhi), Jammu and Kashmir State archives (J&K), Alama Iqbal library (University of Kashmir) Srinagar, Secretariat Library Srinagar, and Doru Shahabad Tehsil Court, Anantnag. I am also thankful to Jammu and Kashmir Coalition of civil society, specially Khurram Parvez and Mohammed Altaf Khan of Jammu and Kashmir Liberation Front. This work would not have been possible without the help of journalist/human rights activist friends namely Mr. Ishfaq and Mr. Rayees, who provided inputs that were so very valuable for my research.

Of course, without the co-operation of my respondents, this study, would have never been completed. I am indebted to all my respondents who were very generous to me and shared their innermost feelings with me.

I am grateful to the staff of the Centre for providing library, Xerox and Computer facilities, in particular Mr. Sajid, Mr. Asher, Mr. Waseem, Mr. Sabir, Ms Nighet, Ms Seema and Mr. Amit. I also express my thanks to the faculty at the Centre, Mr. Aziz Faisal, Dr. Huma, Dr. Juhi and
Ms. Tauseef for their ungrudging support and encouragement. My colleagues and friends have been a source of great support and while I the list is long, I would particularly like to thank, Afshan Anghin, Farhat, Nyla, Neelima, Sadaf, Sehar, Mridula and Sana.

My family has been my main source of inspiration I am indebted to all members of my family, especially my Dad, Mr. Gh Mohiudin Malik whose undaunted support have made me survive difficult times during my research. Papa- Bashir Ahmad Chepoo, Maa–Mrs.Safia, My brothers–Mr. Asif and Mr Mudaisir, Bhabi, and my grandparents have shaped my conviction in great many ways. My childhood teacher and uncle, Late Mr.Ishaq had taught me the values of honesty which I tried to hold on with, all through my work. I appreciate my husband Mr. Feroz Ahmad’s belief in me and the way he provided moral support to me. Love and affection of my kiths and kins, Shujaat, Asima, Sabahat, Irtiga, Iqra, Shafia, Adnan, Wajid, Sarah soothed me in difficult times.
