Plate 1 and 2: Breaching of road by flood in Gerimari and Hazarikapara village

Plate 3: Flooding situation in Niz-Rangamati village, 2015

Plate 4: Submergence of Monitory village road during flood, 2015

Plate 5: Erosion prone banks of Noa-Nadi near Kalaigaon

Plate 6: Bank erosion along Bega-Nadi at Mowamari (Source: The Assam Tribune, 10 August, 2014)
Plate 7 and 8: Cross-sectional data collection at N.T.Road crossing gauge-discharge site over Noa-Nadi on December, 2013

Plate 9 and 10: Measuring channel depth and water velocity of Noa-Nadi at N.T.Road crossing gauge-discharge site on December, 2013

Plate 11 and 12: Household survey at Niz-Rangamati and Monitary village on November, 2014
Plate 13: Interview with the Gaonburha of Gariapara village, June, 2015

Plate 14: Interview with Rajendra Baruah, who took the lead to divert the Mongaldoi river by the people during 1977

Plate 15 and 16: Peoples taking shelter at road during Noa-Nadi flood, 2012

Plate 17: Cattle shifted to raised platform during flood in Mangaldoi river

Plate 18: Raised platform at Monitary village
Plate 19 and 20: Distributing flood relief to flood victims at Gariapara village

Plate 21: Construction of embankment under rural development scheme

Plate 22: Irrigation scheme (headwork) on Noa-Nadi at Kachia village

Plate 23: Bamboo spurs to prevent erosion on banks of Noa-Nadi near Kachia village

Plate 24: Boulder pitching on the banks of Noa-Nadi
Plate 25 and 26: Abandoned channel of old Mangaldoi river after diversion, 2016

Plate 27: Local MLA visiting flood victims at Niz Rangamati village, 2016

Plate 28: PHE Department distributing sanitary latrines to the people of flood affected area, 2016

Plate 29 and 30: Police personals are shifting people to safer places by country boat during Mangaldoi river flood, 2016