PREFACE OF STUDY

Examination on SSI is insightful development & in light of present circumstances term should be used as part of particular sense. Investigation is one of kind duty to present supply of learning making for its movement. It is mission for truth with help of study, observation, connection & examination. Essentially, mission for learning through objective & exact methodology for finding answer for issue is examination. Research methodology is way to deal with purposely deal with examination issue. It may be fathomed as investigation of concentrate how research is done coherently, here we consider diverse steps that are grasped by expert in examining research issue close by method of reasoning behind them.